

Send Us Your Stories

The most generous thing you can share is your success stories. If you have achieved good results from your training, we would LOVE to be able to post your stories on our web site or include them in one of our books. Many of you are living your dream. Others are earning a good income as coaches or trainers. Every day someone calls to tell us about the amazing changes in their business or relationship.

You can share your story, complete with your name, and increase your fame. Or you can tell your story anonymously to protect your privacy. We also need lots of stories about people you coached that applied your work to make their lives better.

People love to learn new tools and explore data and information. But the best way to share our unique approach to coaching and training is through stories that reveal the depth and feeling of your successes.

If you like to write, you can E-mail your story to us. If speaking comes easier for you, we would love to listen to your stories via SKYPE. Then our team can put your story into words for you so that other people can benefit from your experiences.

The Danger Zone

As we mentioned earlier, this month we are offering our most intensive and risky seminar—Self-Actualization. This course is only for people with strong, healthy minds because it challenges the entire framework of your culture. This course systematically unravels the false identity and the pretences you created to win approval from others.

People live in a painful illusion, that something is wrong with them. So they organize their careers and lifestyles to try to prove that they are worthwhile. Self-Actualization shatters the myth of “wrongness” by joyously pressing through the false ego that holds you back. When you choose to play your authentic self, you can go through life being loved for who you really are.

WHAT'S NEW

We are counting the days until Stollywood arrives. With her partnership we are poised to expand our game to many new countries and cities.

Claudia Stoll is one of the finest coaches we have ever trained. Her ability to light people up on stage is legendary. And her effectiveness as a corporate trainer is inspiring for every graduate of Sage University.

Stolly joins us in October as the Chief of European Operations. This is a huge step, for her and for all of us. Please send her all your love and support for a smooth transition.

Greeting from Mia Sage

Sometimes I try to imagine what would have become of me had I not chosen the path of entrepreneurship. If I had gone to a traditional college, I would be just graduating, and preparing for a job in a field that didn't really challenge all of my abilities. I would probably also be living in a normal apartment in a major city, following the crowd and hoping that something good would come along to make my life worthwhile.

The path of the entrepreneur is hard. I work way harder than anyone with a regular job. I take on challenges that push me past the limits of my mind and body. But it is the most fun I could ever imagine. And I complete one project after another at such a high rate of speed that I can hardly believe it.

The last week I spent on holiday, which is always my most productive time. I finally published the new Forget About Selling audio that you have been waiting for. This stimulating dialogue between Martin and me is about the important topic of building a sales team. It will show you how to recruit and motivate a team that will assist you in getting your products and services to more clients.

Here is how you can download your copy:

1. Go to www.forgetaboutselling.com.
2. Click on "CD 4: Team Selling".
3. Listen to or download the first track for free.
4. To purchase the audio, click on "Buy Now".
5. Put in the Euro amount that you would like to pay (you can get the whole audio for as little as 1€).
6. Click on "Checkout Now".
7. Pay with your PayPal account or enter your credit card details.
8. Wait for some seconds while the website is preparing your download. Once the "preparing" sign changes to a "Download" button, click on it. 5 minutes later, the album is on your computer.

Thank you Austin, Texas

Thank you Austin, Texas, for offering our first US based 6-day training—The Coaching Game. Now America has 10 coaches with better skills. Some of you will play as amateurs coaches, some as professionals, earning your living by helping other people live life more fully. All of you will communicate more effectively and use your new tools to help hundreds, perhaps thousands of people reach their goals and live their dreams.

Here on Ibiza we are proud to be your mentors and professors. Your new patterns of communication are so powerful that you are already among the finest coaches and trainers on Earth. Thanks for playing.

How To Talk to Men 6-Day Trainer's Course

Confidence is very important for the coaches and trainers that will earn a living by delivering the How to Talk to Men course. By attending this 6-day course on Ibiza you begin the process of becoming one of the most effective trainers in the field of professional training. You will earn your confidence.

No other relationship course can move people like this. Attending this class qualifies you to sponsor the course and to co-train with our experienced coaches. You can also train your own courses whenever you feel ready.

Then, if you want to achieve excellence as an instructor we want to invite you to take an additional 24 days of training over the next year to become fully certified as an independent trainer.

Whether you take the quick route, or take the time to achieve the highest level of skill, you will learn all the basic skills you need to conduct How to Talk to Men just by attending this 6-day course. Call or E-mail to make your reservations.

How To Talk to Men Advanced Paris, France

The instructor's course on Ibiza is perfect for professional trainers. But if you just want to improve your communication skills with men, your best bet would be to attend the Advanced How to Talk to Men course with Mia Sage in Paris, October 7th--9th. This is the ultimate experience for all women that want to create greater harmony and intimacy with men.

Mia is honest and appreciative, so you can be sure you will get the feedback you need to make real changes in your connections with men. Our unique theater method makes this training fun and profound at the same time.

Self-Actualization--Relationship

Ibiza

(September 24-30)

This is the last chance to attend Self-Actualization at the current low price.

Single and lonely? Or married and bored?

In our hearts we know that love is the most wonderful experience that people can share. But the current structure of relationship doesn't work for everybody. That is why we are so excited to introduce a totally new version of Self-Actualization designed to free you from the cultural limitations and pain connected to marriage and relationship. This is where you come to open your heart and to learn how to fulfill the desire of your life force by living your love to the fullest.

The old sexual contract is obsolete. You will need unusual honesty and clarity to create a sexual partnership and family system that can work in these times. No matter how many relationship books you have read or how many courses you have taken, you have never seen or heard anything like this.

The only way to release all the energy and joy locked up inside of you is to shatter the cage of guilt and shame that makes you hold back. When you try to fit in and to please everybody, your self-doubt extinguishes your vitality. When you are frustrated and lonely you unconsciously block others from giving you their appreciation and affection. No one wants that.

Living life fully requires your total commitment and belief in your innate goodness. You are just as magnificent as a lion in the jungle or a dolphin in the sea. The only difference is that noisy voice in your head and the painful constriction in your chest that makes you feel small. It's time to let it go.

You are a wondrous work of nature. Your love is the very expression of divine beauty and grace. There are plenty of men and women that want to share that with you.

Self-Actualization--Relationship reveals the dark side of enculturation. You will see how false knowledge has made you feel bad about yourself. When you meet your inner self and learn to accept the animus or anima—the animal nature--you begin to unwind years of stress and tension that have blocked your mental, emotional, and sexual self-expression.

Millionaire 10 Day

(October 17.-26.)

The only thing that stops you from earning abundant money is that you let people drag you off course. When it comes to fulfilling your abilities, sometimes the people that love you most aren't your best allies. You can easily find role models and effective formulas that will help you move your career into the big leagues. But what you really need is the initiative and the inner force to perform the day-to-day tasks that add up to real success. That requires a team. And that is why we invite you to join the Millionaire 10-Day course. Here you will find your bearings and build up the inner strength to reach your financial goals.

Hardly anyone ever created prosperity without the benefit of a mastermind group—a dedicated team of mentors and coaches that showed them the way and gave them the feedback they needed to stay on the path. The Millionaire 10-Day puts you together with lifelong friends that will form your advisory board. As a beginner you will benefit from the experience and wisdom of the more advanced players. Later you will become a guiding force in the career of the others. If this is your level of play, we will see you on Ibiza.
