

The Advanced Geisha School in Honolulu lifted a few fortunate women to new levels of awareness through pleasure. What makes this adventure unique is that there are no experts or teachers. Every woman arrives with a great intelligence and sensitivity that she shares with her classmates. So every course is fun and full of surprising discoveries.

No one wants to live a boring life. Geisha School provides an exciting alternative. Women that discover the power of essence-level entertainment add love and lightness to their families and careers.

If you have a strong desire to bring elegance, charm and warmth into your life, take some time to chat with the ladies that attended this event so you can see if you could benefit from Geisha School.

Did you know that joy is your natural state? It's true—anytime that you are free from squabbling with other homo sapiens you automatically revert to delightful enjoyment.

A famous naturalist conducted a study of baboons, and after years of careful observation he came to the conclusion that the biggest problem of baboons is other baboons. You would think their problem was lions or hunger or disease. But virtually all of their suffering came about as a result of interactions with others of their own kind. Sound familiar?

We created Sage University as the first institution of higher learning that shows people how to interact playfully, both privately and professionally. Over the years we have watched many of our students learn to treat their associates and families with deep respect.

Our record is far from perfect. Some of our students and graduates haven't yet mastered the art of loving kindness. But many now earn a living by providing service from the heart. They win clients by treating them with profound respect.

Every infant knows how to love and appreciate, so we aren't teaching a skill as much as unlearning years of bad habits. Thank you so much for your participation in this wonderful game.

Imagine a medical doctor that doesn't use fear to sell medical services—well that would be Dr. Anne Pieper, a surgeon and graduate of Sage University. Imagine a wife and business partner that truly respects and appreciates her husband—well that would be Dr. Carly Smith, another graduate. Imagine a professional coach that never criticizes or blames her clients or her family—well that would be Claudia Stoll from Munich. Now imagine thousands of others like them—winning friends and earning good incomes by making life warmer and easier for other people—well that would be you. We want to acknowledge that your kindness has become the trademark of Sage University.

WHAT'S NEW

Heike Hoch and Katja Rossel have done it again—they just completed the best Coaching Game seminar in Germany. The premise is great. They put together a course and then invite trainers from Ibiza to Skype in to participate in the course. Everyone learns, everyone earns, and everyone finishes the 6-day course with a new dimension of aliveness.

There are now Sage graduates offering classes all over the world. If Paris, France is your cup of tea you will want to connect with Eva Kuby. Together with Mia she will be conducting the Advanced How to Talk to Men training there June 29th. Plan to spend a couple of extra days for shopping and socializing.

Greeting from Mia Sage

I am so excited to be the new owner and operator of Miamar Productions, Inc. It has always been my dream to achieve success in the game of business. The fact that I am already conducting business on two continents is beyond my fondest dream.

Sometimes people get the idea that us manager-types are a little boring. Marketers inspire people to participate. Visionaries spin exciting lives for their clients. But as a certified paper pusher, I am here to tell you that my life is as exciting as anyone I know.

The best part of my job is managing all of the artistic and agent types that make up most of the coaching and training profession. Elvis had Colonel Parker—Sting had Miles Copeland—but you have me. It is a great honor that you trust me enough to assist you in directing and organizing your careers. And now the Year of the Dragon has arrived, so I am ready to push you to all new highs.

Whenever we read new reports that unemployment rates in Germany are better than in Spain or America, we have to laugh. It has to be a man that creates those statistics, because the situation for women in Europe remains unchanged. Fewer than 14% of Euro managers are women, compared to nearly 50% in the US.

Perhaps that is why so many Sage University students are bright women that feel drawn to operating their own businesses. It takes four years of education to learn to operate an effective business, and then another few years to achieve success. But the payoff is there for those that are willing to stay the course and put in the time.

Destination Hawaii

Xochitl Hernandez has done an amazing job by opening Miamar Productions, Inc. (parent company of Sage University) in Honolulu. Her life over the last several months has been in tune with the legends of so many other pioneers that have opened cities around the world to share our approach to free agent entrepreneurship. She has survived and thrived alone with few resources and little visible support. Now Lucy Egg is joining her in the middle of the Pacific to expand our mission. If you have Xochitl or Lucy as friends on Facebook, be sure to congratulate them for living their adventures and making all of our lives so much more exciting.

Fashion Fits

Fashion, fun and travel are becoming more the norm for students of Sage University. Glamour used to be something that is reserved for a few special people. But our culture sees the beauty and the sensuality in everyone.

This year we invite you to join us in cities throughout the US and the EU to live the adventures that most people only dream about. Already there are plans in the works for events in Bali, Bora Bora, and several other exotic islands that begin with the letter B.

You can learn a craft or develop a career by sitting in a dull classroom as a professor drones on about this book or that idea—or you can put on your dancing shoes, open your heart, and join in the adventure of a lifetime. This is where you learn the business skills and people skills that prepare you for the new experience economy. Check out our website to choose your next rendezvous.

If you live in the US, you will have an opportunity to attend a live event with Mia Sage in Austin, Texas this April. Her visit corresponds with the blooming of the famous Texas Bluebonnets, so the entire state will be bathed in gorgeous flowers that welcome spring to the Lone Star State.

April 21 & 22 you can attend Live Your Dream. The Feminine Mystique will be happening the next weekend, April 27-29th.

These events are available due to the great bond of friendship and trust that Maria Johnson has built with Mia over several years. You can enroll by contacting Maria in Austin at 512-217-0528.

Networking

(April 05-08)

When you create a network of associates and clients that send you a steady stream of customers, your business worries are over. Word-of-mouth (or word-of-mouse) referrals fill your business with curious people, all eager to buy your products and to tell their most trusted friends about you. The 4-day Networking Seminar shows you how to make your life and your business so exciting that your activities give people something to talk about. You will also learn how to share your antics through social networking and party lines that ensure you a steady stream of public relations. Building a great network requires a totally new way of thinking that sets off idea viruses that spread with little or no effort on your part. You can't learn that by reading a book. So join us in sunny April to gain the skills you need.

The Art of Selling—6-Day

(April 09-14)

We all learned selling from the old Masters, like Bryan Tracy and Joe Girard. Their techniques earned untold millions for professionals like us. But now those old tactics are like the antique car that we love to take out for an occasional spin. Forget about that old "closing the sale" stuff. Successful business people today focus on opening the sale and completing the transaction in a single stroke by speaking a few profoundly simple facts that establish honesty and earn trust. We would love to rehearse this new approach with you. Come to Ibiza for a few days over Easter to help raise your business from the dead.

Clinical Hypnotherapy

(May 03-06)

The deepest, sweetest communication you can make doesn't come from anything you could ever think or say or do. Great connection is a quantum event in which two people or more join together in an unexpected transformation that lifts everyone to a new level of understanding and harmony. Like great dancers, or like true lovers, you lose track of who is doing what to whom. Boundaries dissolve. Everyone is transformed simultaneously. You will learn to go beyond hypnotic techniques by conversing directly with the higher consciousness of another infinitely intelligent human being. If you are ready for the next level, then this is your event. Contact us today and make your reservations to join us in May in Santa Eulalia.

The Man/Woman Game

(May 07-12)

When all is said and done, you either turn people off or your turn them on. Your conversations either bring you closer to other people or push you apart. You can see which one is happening by the quality of intimacy you are enjoying in your life right now. We can show you how to connect with the people you desire. In this seminar men and women join together for deep, respectful exploration of the language of love. It doesn't matter in the least how you look or how you feel about yourself. When your heart does the talking your love has the power to transform acquaintances into friends and friends into lovers. Here you will learn how simplicity and clarity in communication make people glow with satisfaction and fulfillment.
