

Endless Summer

Chronos is time measured by the clock. Kairos is the infinite sense that it is always “right now”. Summer on Ibiza seems to bring them together perfectly. We are taking long leisurely deep water swims every day. Seeing the mountains in the background across the blue waves alters our perceptions. We are looking forward to a couple of more months to enjoy this bit of heaven.

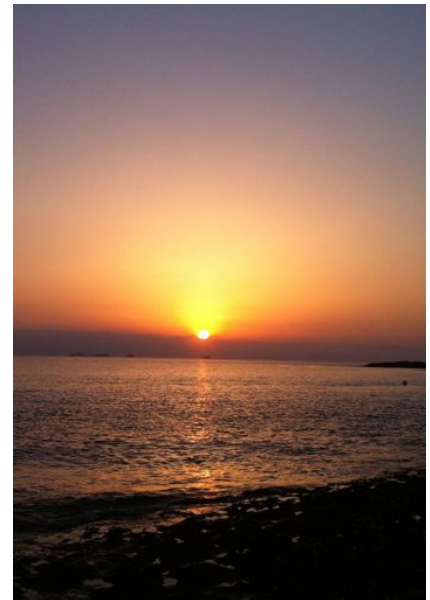

Work is flying out of our minds and flowing through our hands as if some hidden power is performing the tasks. We flow from one gorgeous beach to another, always productive and always relaxed at the same time. When you are ready for a change we invite you to join us.

Ibiza Yoga Center

As you know, we are searching for a new training center for next year. As much as we love San Miguel and Santa Eulalia, we see the need to create a larger training room to accommodate the ever-growing needs of Sage University. The photo above comes from one site that we visited. The pool is natural—no chlorine. The facility is exquisite, with sleeping rooms to complement the large kitchen and training room. We are only beginning our search, so we will keep you posted as we uncover more hidden treasures on Ibiza.

If you are planning a trip to Ibiza it could be challenging to find flights for the next couple of weeks. Apparently we are in the very epicenter of holidays for many EU countries. If you need to attend the 6-day Writing School next week please let us know so that we can hook you up with a local training center to attend via Skype.

The airports are clearer next month for the 6-day How to Talk to Men training that begins September 3rd. Our most exciting training coincides exactly with the finest weather and the warmest seas. The course is filling up quickly, so be sure to book your flight early and to register for the course at your earliest convenience.

The Best Keep Getting Better

The finest coaches and trainers you can find are trained by Sage University. That is because we blend the discipline of coaching with the pleasure of bringing out the best in others. Our unique Transformers are incredibly precise perceptual tools that enable you to sync up with your clients in a powerful partnership.

Like any fine artist or athlete you have to rehearse constantly and consistently to keep your tools sharp. You are already the best-equipped coaches. We want to encourage you to keep your edge through continuous improvement, either via Skype, or by spending some wonder-filled days with us on Ibiza.

WHAT'S NEW

If you have contacted our office on Ibiza over the past few weeks, you have probably been pleasantly surprised by the level of service you receive with Xochitl Hernandez at the helm. After several years of operating this business virtually alone, it is exciting to feel the difference that one person can make in the quality of client services. Xochitl (pronounced Sochi) has reached the point of critical mass—the breakthrough experience where life turns into a series of wonderful miracles. When you talk with her you will feel the flow of aliveness that comes when a person surrenders completely to her destiny.

Feminine Mystique in New York City

I just got off Skype with Karen Blum. We are having team meetings almost every day now in preparation for The Feminine Mystique in Manhattan--August 3-5. Every call with Karen is an exciting event. She is upbeat, professional, and effective. It is a genuine thrill to play on a team that operates so smoothly. We both have many years of training behind us, and it really shows. Carly Smith will also be joining our team. It is a joy to play with such high-performance people.

For this event we have booked a lovely Yoga Center on 49th Street, quite near to the Sage Theater. The Big Apple provides exactly the kind of exciting location we need to make this weekend sizzle. We invite you to join us for three days of learning, healing, and adventure. Bring your party clothes. The training takes place in midtown, so there will be plenty of opportunities to party after class. If you can join us for this adventure, please do.

We are beginning our search for sales associates—women that want to participate on our global outreach team to share the upcoming How to Talk to Men book. This is a shockingly good read that will open your eyes and your heart. Now we are assembling call teams to link up via SKYPE and to conduct book reading in homes across the US and the EU.

If you love working on a high-performance team with other enthusiastic women, or if you enjoy the pleasure of making public presentations in homes and businesses, we want to invite you to join us on the most exciting sales team that has ever existed. You can't buy the kind of training and experience that you will get by playing all-out with us in this loving adventure.
