

Two New Branches

Miamar has given birth to two daughter companies—one for relationship training and one for career training.

The relationship courses are based on the How to Talk to Men training. We are looking for 100 owners—mostly women—who are willing to travel, train, market, and manage this international business.

The career courses are based on the What to Do With the Rest of Your Life format. So far most of our applicants for this business are men.

Both businesses will operate independently from the parent company. You are welcome to participate as a client or as a trainer/marketer/manager.

The Instructor Training for the career group is March 1-10. The next Instructor Training for the relationship company is taking place in Hawaii March 12.-21.

The Mia Sage Method

What sets our approach apart from other trainings is the depth of receptivity. Mia Sage is the epitome of feminine yielding. She listens deeply and intently, with her ears, her eyes, and her skin. When you spend time with her you feel the quality of your own natural goodness.

Students of Sage University learn to read people carefully with great respect. They practice the art of loving kindness. In every encounter they are releasing their own point of view so they can merge with the curiosity of their clients and follow the pulse of aliveness. So people automatically get a clearer sense of who they really are and how they want to live.

Such deep receptivity blends beautifully with other philosophies and methodologies, from kinesiology and coaching to psychology and science. When you see how everyone is right, then you begin to see how each person holds an essential piece of the great human mosaic.

Feminine love exudes lightness. Yet it is passionate and profound. A mother loves her baby totally. That is the model we use to measure the loving protection we offer to our clients. The Sage Method is the process of systematically releasing the pressure so we can live in pleasure.

We are delivering 2000 more copies of How to Talk to Men to Austin this month. Check out our new web site to order yours: www.howtotalktomen.org. If you think this is just another book on relationship, think again. Chris Kay from Dallas has described this publication as the manifesto for a great new social movement. Millions of women are ready to move beyond feminism to embrace femininity.

Everyone is tired of the poor treatment women receive in Third World countries. No one really believes men should earn more than women. The war between the sexes is painful and boring. We are all ready for a new beginning. But nothing is going to change until women take the initiative and learn to build bridges of trust with men. Finally we have a manual to show us how.

WHAT'S NEW

Justin Herfel has taken charge of the trainer teams. His experience on Broadway is bringing a new quality of professionalism and excitement to our seminars. If you get the chance to train with Justin, take it. You will be amazed how his presence brings out the best in your performance.

Xochi Wild and Maria Johnson are leading the way to Waikiki. Their love of women is lifting the Geisha Training to a new dimension. If you are ready to experience the sweetness of your femininity, be sure to join them in Hawaii for the winter tour.

Mariana, Camille and Canan are busting Houston loose, making the Mia Sage Method available to the wonderful women of Texas.

Greetings from Mia Sage

My man keeps telling me that business is a matter of trust, and that you earn trust through persistence and integrity. He says that growing a business takes twenty years—the same time that you would allocate to raising a child to maturity.

Our training system provides four 5-year stages. The first five years are for learning the fundamentals of business. The second 5-years give you the mastery to be the best in your field.

The financial payoff appears in the third stage. You enjoy success beyond your fondest dreams. Finally, the leadership phase enables you to train excellent leaders to carry your game forward, freeing you to explore new adventures.

I am now beginning my 8th year. It's amazing how much I have learned and how much I have earned. I have transformed into a competent business player. People worldwide are enjoying my book. My courses are full, and I am living a fulfilling life. Yet the best moments for me are the ordinary times I spend with my man, enjoying each other's company.

High Commissions for Book Sales

You can earn 10€ for each copy of How to Talk to Men you sell. Many trainers are using the book as a text for their courses. We also have phone teams you can join to distribute the book together with friends. A beginner can sell a book every hour. A competent sales rep can easily earn 30-50 Euros per hour. If you sell through bookstores, salons, or by doing PR for Mia, you can earn far more.

Our favorite way to sell books is through book readings and home parties. We don't sell perfume like Avon. Rather we provide free coaching evenings where women gather to talk about their relationships.

You can buy 10 books for 200€ and sell them for 30€ each ($ in the US).

Going to Waikiki

The Hawaii business is growing strong roots. Our winter events are filling quickly. We will be sending teams of trainers to Honolulu each month of this year to deliver career and relationship courses there. If you love the tropics and love our trainings you can now have both.

Our Road Teams are also launching in the spring. We will be sending our very finest trainers on tour—Austin, Houston, Cleveland, Seattle, San Francisco, New York, Munich, Hamburg, Berlin, Barcelona, Madrid, Amsterdam and Paris—keep an eye out for us—we are coming your way.

If we failed to include your city it is only because we are waiting for your call. Let us know where and when we can work together.

Thank You

We are eternal beings, but you only get one chance to live this life fully. The only person that has the power to change your life is you.

You can build the career you desire and create the relationship of your dreams. We can provide the tools you need and assist you with the design. And we can work alongside you, putting you in connection with other good-hearted people who recognize that true happiness comes through service to others.

Miamar Productions and Sage University spring from the heart of thousands of students and graduates. You are a student—and you are a professor. You are also a practitioner in the service economy.

Our student body has been exploring ways to make life better for over thirty years. Your contribution has been an important part of that. Thank you.

Geisha School Intensive—Oahu February 20-24

Great relationships occur when men and women learn to consistently encourage and inspire one another. Mia Sage is the master of this fine art. She lives in 100% harmony at home and creates 100% equality in business. Her method arises from her unique approach to character building.

Forget about self-improvement seminars and programming techniques. Geisha School Intensive touches the very core of your feminine being. These precious days with Mia will reawaken your soft passion and restore your sweet, nurturing nature.

Meet us in Waikiki to clear your perspective with regard to men and relationship.

Instructors Course for What to Do With the Rest of Your Life

(March 1-10)

Career is the most important part of a person's life. The right vocation brings prosperity and fulfillment. We have helped thousands of people design and build great careers since 1977. Now we are creating a global team of first-rate instructors to take this training to every major city on earth.

Do you love travel? Are you tolerant and loving? Do you enjoy contributing to the success of other people? If our new business branch sounds interesting then we invite you to join us March 1st to begin your training. The new economy belongs to free agent entrepreneurs. We are delighted to coach them in their endeavors. Our mission is to help people see the world in a profoundly new way.

If you have the compassion to really take people on and challenge them to live fully, we could use you. Most of our trainers so far are men, but we are open to everyone who wants to make a difference.

How to Talk to Men in Business

(March 7-10--Waikiki)

You need to earn more money. To do that you must interact more intelligently with all the people in business, including men. No one can tell you what to say or how to act. You learn business communication skills the same way you learned to walk—one step at a time.

How to Talk to Men in Business is the only training available that uses role-play and inner theater to boost your courage so that you will have the confidence to express yourself in the business environment. Both corporate and entrepreneurial women gather here to work through the tangled threads of communication in the workplace so they can rise to the top of their professions. Forget about rote-learning and manipulative techniques. Experience the power of self-discovery. Alter your perceptions and release the force of your authentic presence in your career. Call to learn more. Then book your flight to the islands for the most powerful career-building event you can get.

10-Day Instructor Course for How to Talk to Men

(March 12-21--Waikiki)

Charisma is more than an individual quality. Powerful performers, actors, and athletes conduct the power of their teammates through their command of the stage. If you are ready to become a team player we want to show you the invisible mechanics of generating great force as a coach and trainer in the field of relationship. We would be honored to have you play on our global team. And we would be just as happy to train you to build your own relationship training system. Our mission is to transform the world of relationship by teaching women the algorithms—step-by-step processes that build bridges of understanding between the sexes. If you want to build lighter, stronger connections for men and women at home and at work, we are already partners. Let us show you the professional secrets that you can use to generate the excitement and enthusiasm necessary for inspiring people to change their lives.

This is a rigorous course that works on the basis of skillful timing. That means you have to show up on time and participate with every bit of your intensity and passion. This advanced trainer training is for women who want to help other women. Learn the skills of professional coaching and training. Participate in a powerful new social movement for women. If this sounds like your cup of tea, please call to apply for this highly advanced training.
