

Happy New Year

If you intend to prosper, this is your year. The Chinese Year of the Horse is 12 months of fast-paced ambition and great achievements. If you plan to coast through life with a meager income, then just sit back and watch from the cheap seats. But if you want to do something great with your life, this is your time.

The past year was the year of the snake. Laziness dictated everything. People waited for someone else to do something for them.

All that changes now. You are in the starting gate. The race is about to begin. It's now or never. If you are looking for trainers to help you win, we are your dream team.

Your True Identity

Who you are is magnificent. You are as beautiful as a sunset over the sea and as powerful as a hurricane. Your desire is the most potent force in the universe. Twenty of our clients just completed the most valuable trainings we offer—Journey to the Self and Self Actualization.

When you don't know your own strength you are doomed to a repetitive life filled with habitual perceptions. Any university can teach you ideas and fill your head with concepts. Only Sage University can awaken your awareness of who you really are and what you can actually do with this wonderful life.

This November we will offer our first ever 30-day Self-Actualization Training. You can attend from anywhere in the world because you can receive your weekly interviews here with us or via SKYPE. You will receive six commands to achieve six miracles every week. Your local coach will guide you and your team will inspire you to take the risks necessary to creating the astonishing life you were meant to live. Are you ready for the miracle of you? Call in to learn more.

Happy Holy Days

The holidays are usually construed as a time to veg out and indulge in familiar emotions. When you make the choice to really live, then every day becomes a holy one. Every action is a sacred act.

We are launching into 365 days of joyous celebration. You are invited to join us.

This week our entire team is converging in Thailand for a festival of touch and movement. From there we return home to Ibiza for a few days to ramp up the business before departing for Bora Bora.

We would love for you to join us in the game of earning your living by living your dream.

Delfino Verde

The finest Chef on Ibiza is now preparing meals for workshops at the Mia Sage Octagon. Kader is one of those rare masters of cuisine who uses only the freshest ingredients to delight the taste buds and awaken the pleasure of fine dining. We feel honored that he is willing to give up some of his winter holidays to prepare meals for our students of Sage University.

The weather is fantastic on Ibiza. The sun shines all day and warm air caresses the skin. But it does get chilly at night. That is why we are so happy to have our own in-house gourmet chef to bring us the finest dining in the comfort of our own place.

Greetings from Mia Sage

Das neue Unternehmertum is now available as a download on Amazon. It is good to have my first book in the German language. I feel honored to have written such an accurate manual for people who want to start up their own business.

I have been practicing the principles and procedures of entrepreneurship for nearly eight years now. Martin Sage wrote the original source document for this book based on his 30 years of assisting free agent entrepreneurs. My gift is the ability to simplify and fine-tune complex practices. I suppose it is typically German to bring precision to the game. This book will clarify the procedures of finding your true calling and transforming your passion into your profession.

My first book, How to Talk to Men, has been translated into French and Spanish. My team will tune up those versions during our stay in Thailand, and upload them to Amazon within the next few weeks. I love sharing my message with all of you.

Professional Selling

The fastest way to the top of your chosen field is masterful salesmanship. For the first time ever we are setting up local sales teams in cities throughout the world. If you are ready to dedicate your time loyalty to the Mia Sage brand, we would love to train you.

Most salespeople want something. They unconsciously fall into pressure tactics or seduction strategies that turn people off. When you join our team, we work with you all through the week to perfect your service skills and deepen your connection to the people you want to serve.

Commissions begin at 30% and climb quickly for those of you who are willing to devote your time and attention to winning together with us as a team. If you want to play with the best, call Xochi for details.

How to Talk to Men The Instructor Course

When you play a role long enough you turn yourself into the character you are playing. Pretend to be a housewife and “poof”—there you are. Hold a position in a company long enough, and you will become what you were only pretending to be.

As an instructor for How to Talk to Men you become an inspiration by inspiring other women to bring out the best in men. We want to teach you how to deliver this course and to navigate the intricacies of dealing intelligently with the opposite sex. Join us on Ibiza for 10 amazing days that will change your life forever.

The only reliable way to improve your life is to make a big difference in the lives of the people around you. Every time you instruct another woman how to communicate more effectively, you win a loyal friend who will dedicate her brilliance to making your life better and better.

The finest things in life arrive as gifts from people who truly appreciate you. As a course instructor you make hundreds of wonderful friends who go on to introduce you to great men and women who delight in lighting you up.

The last century was a time of war and business competition. People got ahead by bringing others down. All that has changed. Now you can do well by doing good for others.

Every woman wants to be more successful with men. You can show them how. We can show you how to show them how.

Set aside these 10 days to become one of the finest trainers in the world. Then take your new skills to cities throughout the world to share the good news and win friends for life.

Geisha School—Bora Bora

(Feb. 26 – March 2)

When you spend your nights in huts on the sea and enjoy your days basking in glorious sunlight with good friends, you naturally merge into a great joy that few people ever get to enjoy.

Join us for Geisha School Advanced on Bora Bora. Together we will spend our days on Earth as it is in Heaven. First we will awaken our senses. Then we will go beyond sensory pleasure into the pure joy of being women in profound service to one another.

Be sure to sign up for this event right now so that we can help you with flights and accommodations. We want you to spend these precious times with us as we all discover the best that life has to offer.

Coaching School

(March 01.-06.)

Consulting, lawyering, and secretarial work are becoming relics of a past economy. Coaching and training are new, exciting fields that are growing globally by leaps and bounds. Many amateur coaches are earning extra cash by coaching a few friends. Others are becoming wildly successful by mastering patterns of communication that heal families and leaders who want to improve the performance of their business teams. Sage University's Coaching School is the absolute finest coaching education available on planet Earth. In six exciting days you master the fundamentals of people reading, teambuilding, and human development. Our unique learning-by-doing approach will quickly take you to the top of the fastest growing profession of the 21st Century. Call today to get all the details and to see why this course is essential to your education in the exciting field of coaching.

Coaching from the Heart

(March 07.-09.)

Coaching from the Heart is a short and sweet introduction to the coaching profession that will open your mind and warm your heart as you learn the most up-to-date ways to inspire the people you care about. If you attend our annual coaching school, this class is the icing on the cake—a lovely application of the tools you learned. Here we simplify the coaching transformers and use the coaching process to upgrade your performance in every arena of your life. No other training can show you so much for such a reasonable tuition fee. So join us on Ibiza or Skype in to this heartwarming event to get your life on track for the new year.

Growing Your Business

(April 01-06)

If you are one of those rare individuals who enjoys the challenge of achieving great success, we created this highly advanced course to provide the skills you need to reach the top of your profession. Here you learn how to build the systems, recruit competent players, and forge them into a mighty team that can reach the goals you have set. Then we demonstrate the practice of marketing leadership, and innovation that will sustain the success you have earned.

If you have high aspirations, be sure to join us to acquire profound understanding of the business fundamentals necessary to fulfilling your dreams. While other universities offer professors with good theories, Sage University provides hands-on training from experienced entrepreneurs who can show you what it really takes to transform your dreams into reality.
