

Sales Mastery Online

Growing your own business is wise. As the population increases, machines are taking over more of the jobs that people used to perform. According to a CNN report, more than 250,000,000 high tech jobs will disappear in the next decade. But free agent entrepreneurs will prosper because they use relationship selling to build reliable business webs.

Join us one Tuesday of each month for 6 hours of excitement and enlightenment. Learn to create your own dynamic sales teams. Keep the energy light as a feather and your cash flow as strong as a mighty river. Sales Mastery sessions via Google Hangout cost less than 100€ per month. Improve your people skills and expand your pleasure. Call today to enroll.

Manuals for What to Do With the Rest of Your Life in French, German and Spanish

If you are delivering What to Do With the Rest of Your Life, courses we are creating training manuals in several languages so you can expand your audience. If you are fairly fluent in French, German, English, or Spanish, you can apply for a manual. As soon as we complete the transcriptions, we will send you a copy.

The more accurately you deliver your courses the more value you will provide for your clients. We have already completed the opening lecture for the first day. Next week we will record the manual for the second day. If you can assist with typing and transcribing, please let us know. We need your help to put you in countries all over the world.

Today there are millions of people considering how they will earn their living and spend their lives. Together we offer the most useful training for free agent entrepreneurs. If you want to earn money by teaching this exciting course, let us know so that we can make your job easier. Travel, earn, play and help other people prosper.

Entrepreneurship Broadcasts

The most cost effective way to sharpen your business skills is by tuning in to Entrepreneur TV. For 5€ per week you can tune in to Sage University Online for the training you need to keep the winning edge.

If your business is already earning too much, you might not need this kind of education. But if you want to grow your business, we can show you how.

Entrepreneurs get paid for doing what they love with people who appreciate them. The new service economy is a pleasure economy. That is why we make these broadcasts fun, short and sweet. Each week you learn one valuable lesson that you can use to grow a strong, healthy business.

Who's Got Your Back?

Partnership and Entrepreneurship are the source of success and happiness. Billions of people have relationships and business. Only a few achieve productive, harmonious partnerships in which the team members truly protect one another.

You can transform your personal and professional connections into sweet, powerful partnerships. No one can tell you how to do that. You have to discover it for yourself. That is why we created our unique interview and inner theater role-play method.

The Sage Method entertains as it educates. Justin Case is going back on tour, partnering with local trainers for two days of fun, laughter, and astonishing insights that will lift your connection to a new level. Check the calendar for times in your city.

Greetings from Mia Sage

Some days I wake up amazed that I am living my adventure as my profession. My clients are also my closest friends. Together we meet in exciting locations worldwide with the aim to improve our relationships and to discover ways to earn our living by helping other people.

Some folks say that we are idealistic—that people are born to be greedy and selfish. They have plenty of evidence to support that assumption. But I choose to focus on the good in people and to surround myself with loving people who play productive games with the magic of team spirit.

The fact that you are reading this shows that you are among the optimistic, cooperative people who endeavor to help other people rather than to exploit them. Our business culture is made for that.

Your kind messages to me tell stories of earning your living by living your dreams. While so many choose to fight for survival, we are forging a new way in which we get ahead by mastering the true meaning of service.

Women Helping Women

GWEN—the Global Women Entrepreneur Network is coming to Hamburg the weekend of August 22-25. Women are gathering from all over Europe and the rest of the world to forge a new spirit of teamwork among women.

Corporations are slowly increasing the percentage of women they hire. But many women need the flexibility to balance family and business. For them, entrepreneurship is often a better fit.

Forget about those local networking groups where everybody is selling and nobody is buying. Join us instead to make friends for life with women who gather to serve one another.

The Pleasure of Business

Summer is upon us here on Ibiza. May and June are those “perfect weather” months. The air seems infused with aliveness. Contented tourists seem greatly relieved to enjoy the holidays they have worked for the entire year in their home countries.

Our tours have carried us to Thailand, Bora Bora, Honolulu, and many other beautiful locations. But when we return to Ibiza we are always amazed at the soft brilliance of the light here—as if the sun smiles on us in a special way. And now the warm seas beckon us to shed our street clothes and float in the womb of the Great Mother.

Oddly, the less we work the more we achieve. Productive pleasure is the trademark of Sage University. Join us for some fun in the sun this holiday season.

Man-Woman Game

(June 01-06—Ibiza)

Every time we offer How to Talk to Men, the participants ask if there is an equivalent course for men. So we created the Man-Woman Game to bring men and women together for six days to learn new scripts and roles they can play together.

This dynamic seminar brings levity, clarity, and wisdom to the male-female connection. Bring your mate, your partner, your boss, or your employees—both men and women—to play through the double binds and misunderstandings that bedevil both genders. Men want nothing more than to be understood by women. And women long to build bridges of understanding with men. So let’s do it.

The Sage Method applies light-hearted inner theater that gives everyone an opportunity to express deep inner truths and create protective, productive bonds. Prepare to laugh, to cry, and to break through to all new connections with the opposite gender.

Trainer Training

(June 08-17—Ibiza)

Some people were born to stand in front of an audience and move people from the depths of their being. We offer the only professional trainer training that shows you how to speak the inner truth that emanates from the hearts of people.

When your voice and your words conduct the love that other people are dying to express, then they reward you by opening their hearts and minds to you.

It takes 10 intense days and many long hours of rehearsal to set aside your own thoughts, doubts, and worries enough to provide a clear channel for others. If you are ready to make the room vibrate with appreciation be sure to attend this annual event now.

People Reading

(July 01-06—Ibiza)

Entrepreneurship is 10% business skills and 90% people skills. Studies show that traditional people reading methods are no more effective than guesswork. Even the professionals who claim to be able to tell when others are lying have been shown to be no more accurate than the average person on the street.

The only people reading system proven to be accurate is observation of micro-expressions. We have developed simple, effective ways to show you how to gauge the intent of the people you love and care for. We use video and group feedback to slow down the interactions between people. By the first day you are seeing behind the social masks and facades that people wear. When the workshop ends you will be able to see the inner truth and give people the recognition they crave. The more accurate your perceptions, the greater your probability for success. Be sure to be here for this intimate exploration into human nature.

Geisha School

(July 17-20—Monaco)

Monaco is made for Geisha School. Here we cavort among the rich and famous, deepening our femininity and honing the communication skills to interact with powerful people. If you intend to enjoy the good life, show up here and bring your game. This event opens your senses and awakens your ability to live, laugh, love, and touch the hearts of people who are living life to the fullest. Mia Sage is your guide on the feminine adventure of a lifetime. Join us on the beaches of the Mediterranean Sea to unleash the powerful force that some women share. Call today to register so that we can help you book your travel and accommodations.

Strategic Intervention

(July 26-31—Ibiza)

The course of our lives is determined by the unconscious mind. Communicating with the powerful inner you requires more than hypnotherapy or NLP. Our profound approach deepens your connections to your inner self. Instead of probing your mind in the role of “experts” or reprogramming your mind, we enter into a deep conversation with your deep inner self. If you coach people you can serve them better by connecting to their instinctive wisdom and intuitive awareness. As they invite you in, you also learn to express inner truths—you speak beneficial messages that you didn’t even know that you knew. You find yourself witnessing your own higher intelligence, with no agenda or techniques to cloud the depth of your client connections. Here is where you learn to enter the realm of the great communicators. Join us to take your work to the next level.
