

Ibiza Summer

Summertime on Ibiza invites you to lounge on the beach or swim the warm waters of the Mediterranean. People don't dress here—they costume themselves for never-ending parties. Restaurants and shops are in full swing.

For those who want to live deeper, sweeter lives we offer seminars that awaken your full aliveness. You can find fun in the sun anywhere. But real pleasure comes from heightened awareness.

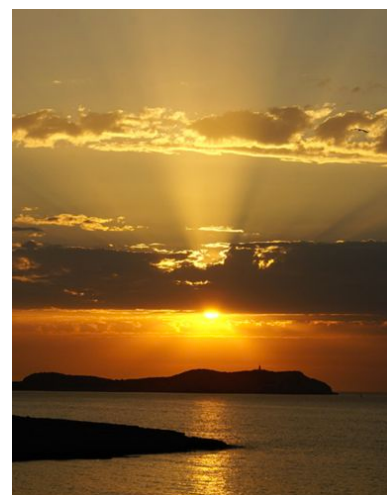

Come to Ibiza for learning, movement, touch, and appreciation. Join us at the Mia Sage Octagon, where you can share profound experiences that transform your life and put your career on a whole new level.

You are a shining star in our arena. Bring your inner music, your wisdom, and your enthusiasm.

Holiday Pleasures

Mia Sage's Geisha School in Monaco (July 17-20) is welcoming women from all over the world. If this is your year to achieve deep femininity you should let Mia know right away. For those who want to improve their private coaching or lead business teams we are offering Strategic Intervention (July 26-31). This is where you learn to reach other people at the deepest possible level. We begin with highly advanced therapeutic strategies and then move ever deeper into the human psyche to give you the power of persuasion necessary to lead people. If you come a couple of days early you can also join Justin Case and his rowdy team for his high-energy Rock & Roll Camp.

August begins with the Sage Writing School (August 1-6) for those who need to write books, newsletters, brochures, web sites, Tweets, and E-Mails that get results. Writing amplifies your career. Writing goes better on the Spanish coastline. Join us this year to make your voice heard.

Lightness of Being

When you fully live your dream you feel so light that you seem to float off the ground. Your mind sees vividly and your heart glows with aliveness.

At Sage University we live this way. When you attend our courses you leave your ordinary life behind. You rediscover the joy and laughter you knew as a child.

Our students enjoy a great business education at a fair price. But more importantly, they find the real meaning of their lives in higher states of awareness. Each time you wake up to a new level you mark that territory as your home-based reality. You begin to live on earth as it is in heaven.

We invite you to enjoy that rare combination of inner peace and excitement with us, and to earn your living by sharing it with others.

Homeless

Has anyone seen Justin Case, Mariana Cortez or Robert Jansen? None of them have been home lately. Rumor has it that they don't even have homes anymore. You probably have seen them though, since they are touring to exotic locations throughout the world. They look pretty well for homeless people.

Justin is in Paris this week. Mariana is somewhere in Texas, awaiting a German delegation. And Robert has been seen with Beverly D in Boulder, Colorado. Don't try to find him there because he will be departing for Vancouver any day now.

You could never believe the beauty of Vancouver this time of year. If you know someone there, or if you want to meet Robert on the road, give him a call.

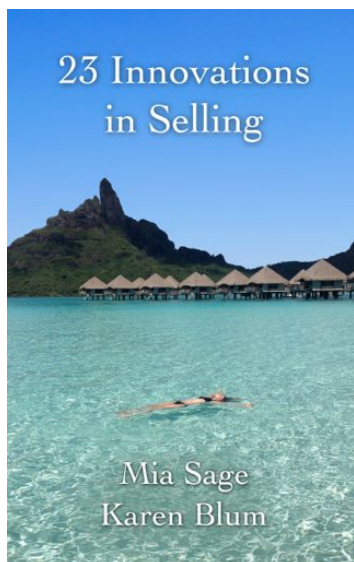

Greetings from Mia Sage

If you want to have more clients for your services or customers for your products, be sure to check Amazon for 23 Innovations in Selling, written by Karen Blum and me. For 3€ you get 50 pages of wit and wisdom in the art of serving your clients.

It is hard to imagine that I now have several books in a variety of languages. In my wildest imagination I never thought that I would become a writer.

I never envisioned training women in business or in the art of living either. What makes life so interesting is our ability to collaborate with others. Good people surprise each other and lift one another into ever more brilliant adventures.

I want to thank all of you who are participating in this wonderful life with me. If you have ever imagined collaborating with me, let me put a bug in your ear. When we do things together we enjoy lives that we could have never imagined for ourselves.

Sales Mastery Online

We want to congratulate the 50 people who have joined Sales Mastery Online. You will see a big return on your investment. For those of you who missed the beginning, you can E-Mail Mia to get on the waiting list for the next series.

The premise is simple. You deserve to make more money. For only 100€ per month we can show you how to increase your income by selling together with a team.

Selling alone is career suicide. People are drawn to team spirit. Sales Mastery Online shows you how to recruit exciting friends so you can reach your goals as a team.

One Tuesday of each month you can tune in to this exciting event together with new friends. Our team will teach your team how to approach the right people to sell them coaching or enroll them as project partners.

Geisha School—Monaco (July 17-20)

Every woman who has attended Mia Sage's Geisha school has opened a new dimension with the men in her life. You can restore your faith and recharge your feminine energy by spending a week with other curious women in Monaco, sampling the finer things in life with women who are devoted to bringing out the best in one another.

Nothing heals like your love. Nothing heals you like the love of other women who are committed to building deeper, richer connections with one another. Let this be the year you awaken your femininity. Call for details.

Strategic Intervention (July 26-31—Ibiza)

You impact people far more deeply when you commune with their subconscious mind. Strategic Intervention is a profound experience because you learn to listen to the subtle impulses of the mind so that you can help people more effectively. Therapists often employ hypnosis and hypnotherapy techniques to overcome phobias. But coaching takes a more direct approach—tuning in to synchronize the silent pulse of awareness that coaches and players use to generate the power of alignment that makes team spirit so exciting.

Your body and mind will release massive quantities of misperceptions as you observe how much of human endeavor is clouded by misunderstandings between people. As your perceptions clear you will see a new world. Just by observing people without grasping or striving for effect you will transform them. Your clients will become the people they always wanted to be.

Sage Writers School (August 01-06—Ibiza)

You don't write a book to become rich and famous. The purpose of writing is to help people and to increase your ability to make a difference in the world.

Dana Minney and Carly Smith are on tour this year because they wrote their books last year. If you have attended their courses then you know how much light and love they are bringing to people from many countries.

In the Writer's School we help you create a short, sweet book in one week. More importantly we give you the skills and the feedback to start your own masterpiece.

GWEN

(Aug 22-25—Hamburg)

Other women are the key to your success. Instead of fighting your way into boring corporate jobs you could be working and playing with other exciting free agent entrepreneurs to grow your own business. Most successful people earned their way by starting and developing a business team. GWEN is where women meet to mix and mingle, and to find project partners who share their values. This is no network meeting. You don't want to be the person with a handful of business cards, scanning the room for your next conquest. GWEN is for women who show up because they want to make a contribution to other women, and to participate in building enterprises that honor the feminine nurturing qualities that women share.

How to Talk to Men

(Aug 29-31—Hamburg)

Mia Sage created the How to Talk to Men seminars that are taught by dozens of women on several continents. Now she is coming to Hamburg with her team to take part in the course that has brought harmony to so many couples and business partnerships. We invite you to attend this life-changing class and to meet Mia in person so that you can feel the quality of her connection with other women.

Intellectual understanding of men isn't enough. To change the equation with men you have to understand from the heart. That is something you get by osmosis. Spend this weekend with Mia to rekindle your feminine spirit and to take your man-woman connection to a whole new level.

Self-Actualization Month: Metamorphosis

(November 2014)

The sooner you sign up for the 30-day training in November the sooner we can begin your free weekly coaching sessions to get you started in your quest for adventure. The caterpillar crawls through life before transforming into a butterfly—one of the most beautiful creatures in all of nature. Metamorphosis is real transformation. We believe you can fly.

If you have fulfilled the first phase of your life, you might be ready to transform into the person you are meant to be. Mia Sage created the Self-Actualization Month for those who are ready to commit to living life to the fullest. You can participate in this powerful challenge via Skype or spend all or part of it together with us here on Ibiza. You can work your regular job, just so you can accomplish your challenges after work and spend four weekends attending the interview sessions either online or in the training room.

Our training team will assist you to melt down the lowly crawling identity you have formed so you can emerge with wings and with a new sense of purpose. We will challenge you to achieve one small miracle each day, together with your teammates. During the interviews you will discover your own self-directed path. Then you and the members of your team will hold you accountable to get the results you promised.

We are making this course very affordable—5000€ for 30 days. If you sign up by August you can save 20%. Mia Sage and her team created this life-changing event because transforming people brings them to great joy. We believe you can fly. You will certainly emerge as someone entirely unexpected. You have to be strong and you have to be ready for this. You can apply by E-mailing Mia to set up an interview.

Have you done what you came here to do? Have you sung, danced, and played? Have you made your contribution? Have you lived your dream? When the end comes can you release, knowing that you gave it everything? Thanks to Mia's meticulous nature this month is a superbly organized series of adventures that you will share with other highly committed people. To learn more you should make an appointment right away.

Sometimes life offers you a cusp—a rare chance to step through a door into a whole new reality. You don't have to be Alice to discover Wonderland. You only need to spend 30 days with us to discover how to live your dream and fulfill your love.
