

Pure Love

Beauty is truth, and truth beauty. This time of year on Ibiza it seems that Mother Nature picks up a new brush and paints scenes that stop the mind and bring us into a higher, lighter perception of this life we share. Sky blue and sea blue contrast with white stone and red soil to refresh our senses with vistas of loveliness.

At Sage you spend your days in nature and your evenings in intimate study of your inner beauty. As the boundaries dissolve, you dissipate into the special quality of light that attracts photographers and philosophers who come to this tiny island to live their days in wonder that can't be described with mere words.

The Turning Point

Famed baseball player Yogi Berra famously said, “When you come to the fork in the road, take it.” He was known and loved as a player, but his everlasting influence came from his accidental role as a homespun philosopher.

As we journey through this wilderness from the cradle to the grave, we follow a path prescribed by our parents, teachers, and the people in our communities. Sometimes that route brings us a measure of fulfillment. More often we live our lives fulfilling the goals and aims of people who use us to fulfill their excessive needs and desires. As it turns out, virtually all of us live lives of quiet desperation. We live in splendid isolation, laboring away the gift of time we have been given.

Inevitable we come to a crossroads. We can move on ahead, or we can turn left or right. The choice we make at that juncture determines the quality of our lives and sets our income for life.

There is another option. The Turning Point is a 2-day Online Workshop you can attend from home that shows you how to branch out by growing in more than one direction simultaneously. Check it out in the pages that follow.

Live Your Dream

Most people talk about what they will do. A few do the things they dream about. Sage University is the only business school that shows you how to turn your passion into your profession so that you can live as you please.

Do you want to travel? Is there a place you would love to live? Are there things you want to do, or people you want to know?

Anything is possible within limits created by your mind. You learn more about people in a few hours of play than through years of work and study.

If you intend to enjoy your time on this planet, you might want to sign up for a year of courses with Sage University. Discover how good life can be.

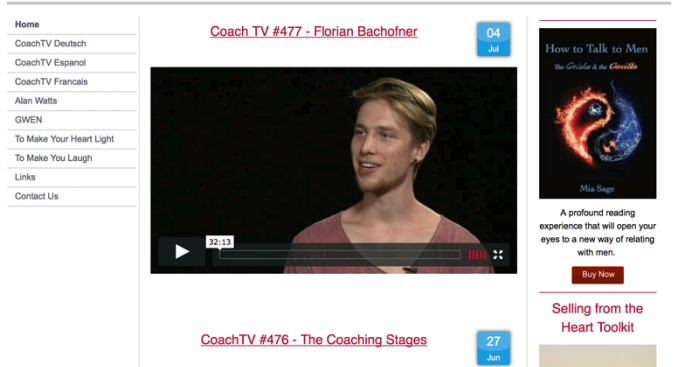

Free Weekly Training

If you watch www.freecoachtv.com every week you are gradually developing knowledge and skills that will set you apart from the field. Along with theory and practice, you are also expanding your awareness of human nature. By investing 15 or 20 minutes per week you are tuning up your ability to bring excitement to other people.

As you improve your own life, your clients begin to make more referrals to you. That enables you to spend less time trying to sell your services and more time on delivering them.

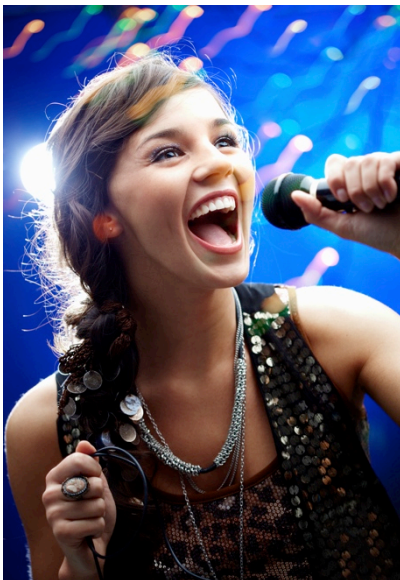

Amateur coaches learn just enough to get a few clients and earn a limited income. Professional coaches practice continuous improvement so they can bring team spirit to families and businesses alike.

Chautauqua on Tour

Beginning October 3rd we will be offering 3 weeks of music, stage, and dance training here on Ibiza. Chautauqua is a traditional festival borrowed from Native Americans in which the audience becomes an integral part of the show. These Autumn days promise an exciting musical celebration for those who gravitate to the stage.

Sage took up the Chautauqua banner during the 1970's, and then brought it to Europe in the 1990's. Those exciting concerts attracted caravans from across the continent. Many of you are protégés of the people who participated in those inspiring festivals. So check the calendar to see which of these weekends, 4-day, and 6-day events best fits your interests and talents.

After the festivities on Ibiza, we will begin our road tour in Austin, Texas in early November. You are welcome to join us here on Ibiza, and to become part of the entourage touring the US as we pay homage to this great celebration of the human spirit. Bring your drums, instruments, voices, and bodies to lift our hearts in music.

Challenge U.

When we began our project-based model of learning in 1980, we were one-of-a-kind. Now a new crop of "challenge universities" are providing exciting new alternatives to boring lectures and irrelevant testing.

The German Zeppelin University, founded in 2003, adds disciplined thinking to their curriculum. Olin College in Massachusetts applies learning-by-doing to enable engineers to learn skills they need by building things. Google has its own programming college for bright young computer freaks.

We were among the first to bring innovation to school, but we won't be the last.

Ibiza Modeling (July 26.-29.)

Every woman has her own special beauty. But none of us can see ourselves as others see us. The image you see in the mirror can never reflect the aesthetic quality you emanate through rhythmic movement and the transcendent beauty that shines from your eyes.

If you want to create more glamour in your life you can enroll to become acquainted with fashion, make-up, and performance skills for all aspects of your life. If you want to model professionally, this course will provide everything you need to get you on the catwalk.

Be sure to bring your hottest, and most elegant outfits, along with any special make-up and accessories that have been effective for you. We have the studio, cameras, video equipment and the legendary quality of light that bathes our beautiful island. Let's make images of you and adventures together that will make this the most memorable week of your life.

The Turning Point (July 16.-17. Online)

Greater health, happiness and prosperity are available for those who are willing to separate from the crowd and strike a new path along the road less traveled.

Most people follow a path they didn't choose. They drift along, taking whatever the economy brings.

You can wait to be swept along by events, or you can learn to prosper by initiating your own events.

There is only one person powerful enough to change your life. There is only one moment to make it happen. The person is you, and the moment is now. By signing up for the Turning Point you signal your decision to end life as you know it and create the life you are meant to live.

Time & Money (Aug. 02.-07.—Online and on Ibiza)

Life is an exciting adventure for those who earn a living doing what they love. Our team will assist you to design and build a career and lifestyle that makes you feel vibrant and alive.

Few people achieve the success they desire. They don't plan to fail. They just fail to plan. So they lack clear direction. Without a plan that fits, too many people work too hard at the wrong thing. They drift through life with little chance of achieving prosperity.

Fortunately you can learn to discover your passion and to set goals that will bring about the life you desire. By the end of this business seminar, you will know the specific actions that will shift you into the life you were meant to live. Most people talk about what they will do. This is a course for people who intend to really do the things they talk about.

The Art of Seeing (Sept. 01.-04. Ibiza)

Beyond the reality you see with your eyes lies a world of infinite beauty and power. The Art of Seeing opens your inner vision so that you can fully appreciate every moment of this wonderful life.

Great players in any field can see details and sort through patterns of motion that give them the winning edge. Their timing seems magical. Their peak performances lift us all to higher levels of perception.

Most people only see what they expect—and they don't expect much. The boredom that underlies their suffering comes from repetition and habituation. To your unconscious mind, everything seems like everything, which looks like everything else—only different.

Opening your third eye requires deep calm together with a delightful shock, which we are happy to provide. Suddenly you wake up to unexpected love. You see the big picture. You notice the beauty in yourself and others.

Discover how deep relaxation and self-love combine to open the inner eye of seeing. Release unconscious tension in your face and body. See your beautiful, wise self reflected in the eyes of your classmates. If you are ready to see beyond the ordinary, contact us today to enroll in The Art of Seeing.

Advanced Communication (Sept. 06.-11 Ibiza)

Effective communication makes you magnetic. By communicating better you will win friends, create harmony in the home, and take your business to the next level.

Beyond the words we speak are deeper, more meaningful patterns of communication. The Sage Communication Training is based upon feedback loops made up of sound, movement, posture and attention. So along with new skills you will expand your awareness to encompass new dimensions of perceptiveness.

Miscommunication is the root of all the discord in your life. Misunderstandings destroy your most precious connections and cherished relationships. No one is at fault. Systems are complex. Redemption requires a whole new way of thinking and acting.

This training provides an in-depth exploration of the Sage Performance Scales. You will learn to shift through patterns of communication to build bridges of understanding with the people that matter most to you.

Time to Write that Book

A new study shows that women judge the attractiveness of a man by his ability to tell good stories. When you put your stories into print, they attract men and women alike. Our writing team can assist you by bringing out stories from your life and weaving them together with the information you want to share.

When you have a good book you gather legions of fans and friends. People want to meet you. Clubs, organizations, and conferences want you to speak and to share your experiences for the entertainment and education of their participants. When Mia Sage published How to Talk to Men she met new friends throughout the English-speaking world.

Good writing is hard, so we are here to assist you. Our prices are reasonable, and no one can interview you so carefully or present your story in such a compelling way. The finest books are stories that move other people to empathize with you. Since they hear your story in their own internal voice, they really let you in.

Record your life and your views for your friends, associates, and for your children's children. Make new friends who are eager to know you as you really are. Talk to Mia to learn more about our writing symposiums and ghost-writing services.
