

Free Agents

Politics has taken a weird turn. Banks are going broke, even as they find ways to take more of our money. More than 30% of Americans no longer even try to find work. People under age 30 face unemployment rates over 60 %. Lawyers are finding ways to take away your retirement money so that your accounts will likely be empty when you need it. Congress is creating a new savings program that pays 2%, while inflation rises to nearly double that.

Amidst such turmoil free agent entrepreneurs sit serene. Our money is moving in our businesses. We are creating clients for life and trust-based networks that carry us above the fray. If you are ready to launch, we can assist.

Coaching from the Heart

Talk is cheap. Words are just symbols. Your only treasure in this life is the glow in your heart when you inspire other people. Sage University shows you how to open your heart and mind to vibrations of loving respect. When you step into a room, people visibly light up as they feel the sweet warmth that emanates from your being.

Coaching From the Heart begins tomorrow. You can attend from home on your computer screen, or you can gather with a few good friends to rehearse the sequences in your coaching sessions.

If you aren't earning as much as you want, let us show you how to conduct your sessions way better and to serve your clients so they can achieve their goals.

When you coach from your heart, every session gives you the feelings of love and devotion that come when you fall in love. Your heart grows warmer and warmer until it bursts open with the joy of connecting and communicating with the people you lead.

This course offers 4 short evening sessions during the weekdays and two longer sessions for the weekend. Call for details and to enroll.

Lower Fees, Higher Quality

Have you noticed how our fees get lower and lower with every new semester? Other coaching systems charge far more, and none of them can deliver the usable skills you will master at Sage.

When you invest your valuable time with us, you get results. While other systems talk about business and life, we thrust you right into the direct experience. You learn by doing.

Every choice you make affects the direction your life will take. We view every decision you make as a matter of life and death. While most folks labor away, we move you into a direct encounter with the people and events that turn your life into an exciting adventure.

The Sage Teams

Every college and university offers some kind of sports program. Some have great football, baseball, or basketball teams. Others specialize in track and field. At Sage University we offer extra curricular teams for coaching, training, and selling. You can play for the Sage Meercats by joining low cost or no cost business clubs.

Facebook, Xing, and other social and business networks introduce you to lots of new friends. We take it a step further by playing with you in games and projects. You work and play alongside highly effective professionals who find their joy in the process of developing people (you) into master of the business universe. Can you come out and play?

Quantum Perspective

From a common perspective, people imagine themselves as individuals, each with unique traits and qualities. From a quantum perspective, you are more than you can imagine. Like all objects and creatures, human existence shifts between clusters of subatomic particles and magnetic waves. We are patterns of photons that have a tendency to exist. The “you” that appears in your life each day is an illusion.

By shifting your attention to the field of information and energy, you transcend personalities and probabilities. Donald Trump didn’t win an election. Rather particle waves swarmed about and exerted their combined will into a dramatic story that you either love or not.

When life doesn’t turn out the way you think it should, just sit back and relax. Why waste sweet time fretting over the vagaries of fate? What really matters is how you unwind from the version of reality you inherited from your family and culture. It is closer to the truth that you represent unlimited potential. Anything you want, you got it. Whoever you want to be, so it is and so it must be. Learn to let go so you can enjoy life fully.

Sage Corporate

Sage University develops entrepreneurship, partnership, and leadership skills. Nearly all of our graduates go on to create their own businesses and coaching practices. But recently we are meeting people who want to be a part of the larger game. That is why we are taking applications for the staff and faculty—for those who want to exclusively represent our teams and players.

If you love loyalty, passion, and cooperation as much as we do, this is your chance to earn much higher commissions and attend continuous training sessions that will make you one of the elite coaches in the world today.

If you want to play for us, contact Mia to learn the requirements and master the rules of the game. We will serve people worldwide. Only join if you are ready to make a great impact on the world of learning and earning. Let us know if you are ready to go.

20€ Quick Coaching Online

Life coaching is a relatively new profession, so most people don't know what it is or how it works. That is why we have introduced a special online Quick Coaching session that you can attend or recommend to friends and associates who need direction and enthusiastic support for their life and career choices.

Tuition for these uplifting events is easy to afford. The return on investment is especially valuable for people who are looking for a larger perspective in their journey. Each participant is allowed only one session at this price, but that one session might just be the very turning point you need.

The Curiosity Factor (Dec. 01.-05. Ibiza)

Human beings are highly intelligent creatures. But our business and education systems foster processes and procedures that foster arrogant, ignorant behavior that pits our intellectual and emotional resources against one another. The time has come to organize communities and companies into cooperative, collaborative systems.

People want to tell you what they think. You seldom agree. Eventually everyone becomes disagreeable. Ordinary thinking yields little or no value. You can be right, or you can get results.

Leaders and explorers focus on how they think. Curious people cultivate a unique sense of curiosity that leads to fascinating discoveries and life-changing breakthroughs.

Cultivating curiosity generates effortless innovations, which increase your aliveness and expand your career and business possibilities. No other course can open your mind like this. Please call for a private interview to see if this special training fulfills your needs and enables your aspirations.

How to Talk to Men Advanced (Dec. 02.-04. Austin)

When a woman falls in love she feels on top of the world. Waves of happiness fill her body and mind. We all know how it feels to love another person so deeply. We always long to find our way back to that feeling. But when love fails, the pain is devastating. Few women ever find their way to the natural high that accompanies true love.

How to Talk to Men Advanced is a 3-day seminar designed to open the deepest reaches of your heart. This event will restore your ability to immerse yourself in love. By attending this course you will find a safe environment to release the anger and anxiety that have blocked your link to men. With greater awareness you will be able to discover your defense mechanisms and see how you unconsciously provoke men. Then you will learn exciting new ways to get what you want with men.

Awakening (Dec. 28.-31. Ibiza)

Two people are looking through your eyes right now. One of you sees the words and tries to understand their meaning. The deeper self sees only love and harmony.

In the conscious dimension we were never born and we can never die. In the historical dimension we live in forgetfulness, oblivious to the beauty and mystery of our existence.

Awakening is a 4-day experience that blends meditation (focus) with contemplation (awareness) to restore your senses and remind you of your true identity.

In The Stranger by Albert Camus the main character will be executed in a few days. As he looks up at the skylight in his cell he suddenly realizes the beauty of the blue sky. He realizes that he has never really noticed it like this before.

As our protagonist enjoys a moment of vivid awareness he realizes his conscious nature. He vows to live every moment of his last days in deep contemplation of the actual world.

When you wake up every morning you assume that you are awake. But virtually everyone walks around in a state of somnambulism—waking sleep. Only rarely does anyone see the depth and timeless beauty of real life.

You are meant to live in an ocean of love. Here is where you come to release the troublesome mental machinations that have distorted your true nature and robbed your life of the lightness of being that is your birthright.

Join us on Ibiza for deep contemplation and meditation that will bring you to your senses and put your life back on its natural, joyous path.

Self-Actualization (Jan. 02.-06. Ibiza)

As your authentic self, you are capable of great achievements. The radiant curiosity you emanated as a child is the most accurate reflection of your true nature. Self-Actualization is an exciting five-day event designed to restore the sweetness and simplicity of your essence. Aside from your death, this will be the most powerful event you will ever experience. Only attend if you are ready to shed all pretense and realize all of the conscious and unconscious elements of your being.

People live mundane lives. Their minds are clouded with worry and injured by conflicts that blur their natural aliveness. Innate joy and creativity are held captive in a web of anxiety and anger. Melodramatic cycles of punishment and revenge pollute the psyche. Thrashing about in pain, people unconsciously hurt the people they love most.

Self-Actualization shows you how to shift your attention from the painful world presented by the ego to the pleasurable sensations of living in one's essence. In your quest for a peak experience, you will come face to face with your shadow. As you learn to embrace the rage and shame that bind your aliveness, you will begin the journey from that dark, painful struggle into the lightness of your actual self.

By attending this seminar you will have an opportunity to challenge your values and assumptions, and to profoundly alter your perceptions. The spontaneous fulfillment of your desires will free you from grief and repression. You will peel away the rings of masks you have constructed on your journey around the sun. As each persona dissolves, you will go through a regression that restores your true nature.

This course offers “tough love” in the extreme. You will be astonished by the radical honesty, and by the feeling of absolute acceptance. In an environment of deep receptivity, you will find your true voice. Your superficial foolishness and petty mindedness will dissolve into laughter as you find the courage to explore the life you were meant to live.

If you are ready to completely change your life, you have to start by changing your direction. If that fits where you are in your life, e-mail our friendly team at Sage University to begin the dialogue that will initiate the ultimate transformation of your life.
