

The Feminine Community (Maui, March 2-5)

Women earn less than men because they don't learn to earn the trust necessary to build business communities. So we are offering The Feminine Community on Maui to bring businesswomen together in profound honesty (see page 4 for more details). Devote four exciting days of pleasure and inner truth with other women who want to lift each other up professionally and personally.

Women are more cooperative than men. But we have never mastered the practice of honor and loyalty that get results in the business world. This is where you learn to love and protect one another. Find the source of your feminine vitality and develop life-long friendships that will take you to the next level in your career.

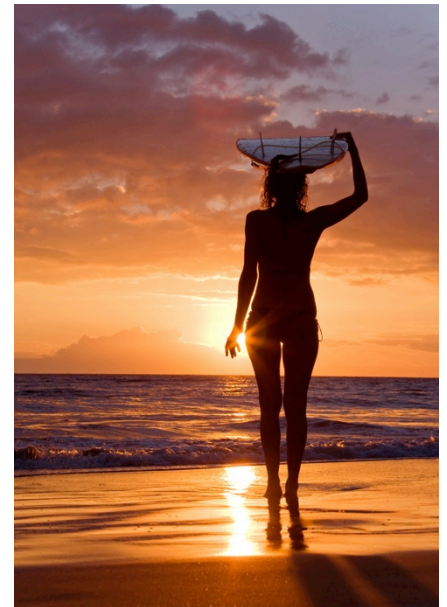

The New Entrepreneurship (February 7-12 Online)

One day you wake up and notice that your career is not where you wanted it to be. Then you notice that you don't earn enough income or have enough free time to enjoy your life. That is the day that you realize—something has to change.

Over 80% of successful people achieved their goals by starting up their own small business. The other 20% either inherited money or married into it. If you don't have wealthy parents or a rich lover, your only way out is through free agent entrepreneurship.

Perhaps you read The New Entrepreneurship (Das Neue Unternehmertum) by Mia Sage. It is available to download from Amazon. There are plenty of books on business, management, selling, marketing, and leadership. Only Mia puts these essential skills in order so you can get an overview of what it takes to find your true calling and earn your living by living your dream.

If you are ready to design, build, and launch your own venture, we are here to show you how. Join us for 6 days Online to learn the essential stages of growing your own business.

The Coaching Game

The University of Texas is known for its legendary football teams. Harvard offers an excellent debate team. At Sage University we chose to organize our sports program around our coaching team. If you are enrolled in our annual training, we invite you to join the most outstanding coaching team ever assembled.

To join Team Sage you pay 20€ per month in dues. This entitles you to attend two 1-hour sessions per week online. Your game is to coach our trainers. You function as a team, providing coaching services to us and receiving feedback on your method and technique. You also earn 40% commissions on your referrals. Nothing beats the power of the pack.

Continuing Education

You will have a more fulfilling life if you continue to learn the dynamics of human behavior. Sage University provides the finest courses available for understanding yourself and others. Every day you are repeating habitual patterns of communication that keep you stuck in an ordinary existence. We provide exciting new social skills and awareness that you can use to create greater intimacy and prosperity by launching a life of adventure.

Along with our new coaching team, Sage University continues to offer powerful, life-changing courses to open new vistas of wonder. Expand your perception by finding the courses that fit with the direction you want to grow.

You are the only person who can transform your life. We are the only school that can show you how.

Lighting Up Your World

Babies look out on a world of wonder. Their eyes shine with curiosity and their faces glow with happiness. As for you—not so much. We often film people before and after a course so they can see how the pain and disappointment has eroded their features. You can see this for yourself by looking at a progression of photos from your early childhood until now. Or you can Google baby faces online and compare them to a selfie of you without your social mask.

Next to the Sage University headquarters lives an old man in his late seventies or early eighties. His joy is so great that his eyes burn with love and curiosity. When he looks at you it seems as though you have left your routine reality and awakened in a new dimension.

You can achieve that kind of aliveness. Our neighbor isn't rich. He doesn't wield power. He is a Frenchman married to a German wife. They love to sit on their balcony and watch us working as a team in the garden. Much of life is about doing what you love. The rest is loving it the way it is. We are there. You can join us.

To Be Like Polina

A wonderful businesswoman in New York signed up for her first year of Sage University recently. The reason she gave—"I just want to be like Polina". We hear that a lot from our NYC clients.

A few months ago Polina was a normal woman who cared for her family and worked a regular job. Over the past few months she has mastered the Coaching Transformers and the Sage Method. Now her heart glows with loving joy and her words move people from the deepest reaches of their being.

Too many people go through life inflicting their pain and point of view on others. Their vanity creates blowback, which diminishes their lives. Polina has made the right choice—to love, serve, and enjoy the pleasure that other people send her way.

The Best for Less

We are at the beginning of the year 2017, and preparing for the next semester of entrepreneurial training. A full year at Sage costs 3000€. If you are under age 30, over age 60, or a single parent, you pay half.

Our students charge much higher fees—up to 20,000€ per year. Our training is superior and our trainers include the team that originated our innovative approach. Our follow-up is beyond compare. We coach from the heart and then provide the finest coaching available for many years after you graduate.

Continuing education puts you at the top of your field. True coaching is a life-long discipline. Every housewife and unemployed consultant can claim coaching credentials. But you know that your business grows as your skills improve.

The New Entrepreneurship - Online (February 7-12)

Trust is the most valuable element in business. Respect is the magnetic force that makes your career effortless and elegant. The New Entrepreneurship (600€) is an evolving procedure that transforms you into the kind of person you truly long to become. This course provides the map of human dynamics that you can use to chart your course. Deepen your understanding of entrepreneurship.

Smart machines are taking over virtually every business. They aren't all that effective. But they don't have egotistical ideas and self-important moods that make people so unreliable. If you are ready to clean up your act, we can provide the skills and the feedback you need to play the game with integrity and devotion. Visit www.sageuniversity.com to learn more.

Innovation (March 1-5)

Every business journal and business plan emphasizes the value of innovation. Scarcely anyone understands what it is or how it works. Innovation is a precise study and rehearsal of 8 essential kinds of innovation. You will acquire a profound understanding of innovative processes and learn the communication skills necessary to managing innovations.

Most businesses today are facing great changes without a clue as to the process of adaptation. Great banks, corporations, and traditional family-owned companies are sinking in the quagmire due to an inability to see the obstacles that go with the new global economy.

Learn to navigate the ever-accelerating world of change. Discover the mathematics of patterns that will enable your clients and associates to make the right decisions. As traditional practices fail, be one of those businesses that will survive. Contact us to see if this advanced leadership course is for you.

The Feminine Community

Maui, Hawaii

(March 2-5)

Sometimes you just have to get away. In familiar settings the people you love seem to need something continuously. Although they mean well, you have to occasionally create special conditions to release your daily obligation in order to balance your mental compass and soothe your gentle heart.

Mia Sage and her team depart for Hawaii in a few days with several women from the US and the EU. They will bask on the beach, enjoy the shops of Wailea, dine in fine restaurants, and enjoy the Aloha spirit that goes with our lovely US branch.

Each day begins with open-air strolls, taking in the unique beauty and fragrance of the island. As Sage has been working in this part of the world for over 30 years, you will also walk the path of history where so many of our coaches and trainers began their careers.

Evenings are set aside for deep conversations on what life has brought to each of us, and how we can assist each other to make clear, self-directed choices about how to live and to serve our families and friends. Along the way we will learn how to open our hearts to share the sweetness that forms the core of every woman.

The flight is long, so we recommend at least a 1-night stopover on the way for the Europeans. You might even plan in a few extra days to visit friends for a few days before hopping over the Pacific. When you arrive, you will be greeted by an open-air airport that is flowing with the smell of flowers and glowing with the happy faces of local people waiting to make your trip unforgettable.

Special Events: Each day we will offer special hikes and events for those who come to see the real Hawaii. You also have the option to book private sessions with Jerry Karzen if you want to put your body and mind in order. His touch and knowledge are unsurpassed in matters of physical health and comfort.

It would be tragic to spend a life on this planet and not take the opportunity to devote a portion of that time in the loveliest place on our planet. This is the reward you have been waiting for and the chance to take your connection to other women to an entirely new level.
