

The quality of light on Ibiza is unique in all the world. Last week we witnessed the perfect sunset at Benirras beach, even as the full moon was rising just across the horizon. The blend of light makes the skin glow.

Ibiza weather is perfect right now--brilliant blue skies, radiant sunshine, and soft summer breezes that soothe the skin and calm the soul.

The secret to enjoying this lovely place is to leave your mind behind. Here it is easier to live in the world of the senses, and thereby to transcend them. Everywhere you go you will meet people that want to make your visit memorable. We recommend that you check out the summer and fall calendar to find the course you need in this wonderful season.

United We Stand

When people play together they don't have to spend their lives working alone. We just completed our annual writing course. The participants that work together will have books printed by spring. Those books will earn them a lot of respect. And entrepreneurs that have written books can easily double their incomes.

That kind of collaboration is rare. Too many people have a tendency to block one another and waste each other's time. It isn't that people are envious or mean. At the core we are all sweet, generous human beings. The problem is that our schools taught us to compete for grades and prizes, and then fight against each other for the best jobs. Such barbaric practices have overridden our natural instinct to cooperate.

If you try to write a book alone, you will fail. If you try to conduct projects on your own, you won't get very far. The entrepreneurs and coaches that succeed are the ones that learn to assist one another. It's all a matter of trust. You can rehabilitate your natural trust by playing business games in which everybody wins.

The Sage Difference

Sage University is the first of a new kind of university. First, we show our students how to get their way with appreciation. Then we make the learning process really fun. And finally, we put people skills first. Every course we offer is designed to make your life better. That is why our graduates can earn a good income by doing what they love.

Here you can earn a degree in entrepreneurship, relationship, salesmanship or leadership. Other universities teach history and theory. We prepare you for your career by teaching the skills that actually get things done. Then our coaches continue to assist your throughout your career.

WHAT'S NEW

Calendar 2012

The Mayan calendar ends in 2012. The new Sage Calendar begins in 2012. You can see it by checking our website today. If you need changes in the schedule you can contact us within the next two weeks to let us know what is important to you. At that point we will post the final draft.

We already offer the lowest tuition and the cheapest room rates. By selecting your 2012 events early and booking your flights now you can blend a year of holidays and education at great savings.

Here is an interesting game. Make a list of everything and everyone that holds you. List the people, events, belongings, feelings, agreements, and habits that keep you on the hamster wheel. Then rate each one on a scale of 1 to 10 according to how much aliveness it brings you.

Then list all the things you want. Describe the toys, travel, experiences, clothes, and adventures. Then notice which of the attachments from the first list you would have to let go in order to make space for the adventure to begin.

Most people only live in a memory. But it is easier than you think to step into the unknown and to create a new, vivid life.

Greeting from Mia Sage

Where does the time go? Someone reminded me this week that it was exactly 9 years ago that I attended my first event with Sage University. I was assisting in the kid camp in the Sage Theater on Times Square. Martin invited me to a course, and that was the beginning of a very exciting life and career.

One of the most important questions we can ask ourselves is "Where will I be 5 years from now—or 10 years from now?" We know that we will be older. But where will we be living? How will we earn our living? Will we be alone? Will we be happy?

Words can't answer those questions. What happens tomorrow depends on choices we make and actions we take today. Life is meant to be an exciting adventure. Finding your adventure means taking risks. If you love, you might get hurt. If you choose to go beyond your beliefs and escape your culture you might lose a lot of familiar friends. You might look bad in the eyes of others. I made those kinds of choices, and I am so glad that I did. Now I choose to press on toward my own kind of success.

Diversity Training

You want to earn more money for fewer hours. You want reliable clients that give you the respect you deserve. You want clients that pay premium prices and automatically renew their contracts every year. In short, you want to train middle sized and large companies that can provide you the security you need.

That is why you should come to the Diversity Training that takes place in the last week in August. We have plenty of experience and years of success with large and small companies, and we want to share our skills with you. If you are ready to jump to the next level, be sure to sign up now for this event.

Learn Professional Coaching in Austin

To create an exciting new life you have to create an exciting new game. The Coaching Game is 6-days of intense challenge in mastering the art of professional coaching. Now, for the first time, this amazing course is available in Austin Texas—this month. Now you can train directly with Sage University without flying to Spain.

If you intend to be a life coach or business coach, we can show you how. If you intend to start up your own business or inspire people to work with you, we have the best method.

The Coaching Game offers 6 days of teaching, training and rehearsal in the people skills that you need to bring out the best in other people.

Who needs a boring job when you can learn the skills you need to open your own practice? Professional coaches earn respect and they earn a good living. To be the best you have to learn from the best, so take this rare opportunity to join us August 15-20 in Austin, Texas for this exciting event.

How To Talk to Men The 6-Day Trainer's Course

It only takes six days of training to learn how to deliver the How to Talk to Men course. By attending this course on Ibiza you begin the process of becoming one of the most exciting trainers in the field today.

No other relationship course can move people like this. Attending this class qualifies you to sponsor the course and to co-train with our experienced coaches.

It takes an additional 24 days of training to become fully certified as an independent trainer for this dynamic course. In only a few weeks you will have the skills you need to conduct How to Talk to Men in your area, or to earn an excellent income for taking the class to cities throughout the world. Call or E-mail for information.

Self-Actualization--Relationship

Ibiza

(September 24-30)

This is the last chance to attend Self-Actualization at the current low price.

Single and lonely, or married and bored?

In our hearts we know that love is the most wonderful experience that people can share. But the current structures of relationship don't work for anybody. That is why we are so excited to introduce an all new version of Self-Actualization that is specialized in freeing you from all the cultural limitations and pain connected to love and marriage. This is where you come to open your heart and to learn how to fulfill the desire of your life force by writing your own rules.

The old sexual contract is obsolete. You will need unusual honesty and clarity to create a sexual partnership and family system that can work in these times. No matter how many relationship books you have read or how many courses you have taken, you have never seen or heard anything like this.

Human beings are wild creatures. To domesticate them is to rob them of love and aliveness. You can't own another human. Nor can another human own you. Fully living your life in a relationship has been nearly impossible in the past. You were supposed to play a role that is completely at odds with your human nature.

You are still that same radiant, loving person you were as a small child. The only way to release all the energy and joy locked up inside of you is to shatter the cage of guilt and shame that make you hold back. You might not want to bring your Mom or your priest to this course. We are going to tell it like it is—without regard for culture or tradition.

When you try to fit in and to please everybody, your self-doubt drags down your vitality. When you are frustrated and lonely you unconsciously block others from giving you their energy. No one wants to live with you when you are like that. Living life fully requires your total commitment and belief in your innate goodness. You are just as magnificent as a lion in the jungle or a dolphin in the sea. The only difference is that noisy voice in your head and that painful constriction in your chest that make you feel small despite all the evidence to the contrary.

You are a wondrous work of nature and your love is the very expression of divine beauty and grace. There are plenty of other people out there that want to share that with you. The only one that doesn't seem to know that is you.

Self-Actualization--Relationship reveals the dark side of enculturation. You will see how false authorities made you feel bad about yourself so they could enslave you for the factory and the military. When you meet your inner self and learn to accept the animus or anima—the animal nature--you begin to unwind years of stress and tension that have blocked your mental, emotional, and sexual self-expression. You begin to howl.

God wants you to be rich and happy and sexually alive. If you are ready to stop fighting against your sacred/sexual nature, put aside a full week to spend with us on Ibiza so that we can rock your world.

Here are your choices:

Live alone and suffer—

Spend your life in a bad marriage fighting like animals in a cage—

Or discover you actual self and fulfill the loving, sensual lifestyle that you were born to live.
