The Joy of Sunlight

Whenever the media blares the dangers of global warming, people look worried. But when people on Ibiza tell you that this is the warmest winter they can remember, they glow with pleasure.

Warm is good. The latest news from the field of nutrition indicates that people don't get enough Vitamin D—the sunshine vitamin. The more sunshine you get in the winter months, the stronger your immune system. That is one reason why we decided to locate the headquarters for Miamar Productions on this lovely island.

For some of our students, even the Mediterranean isn't warm enough. That is why some women are meeting with Mia in Hawaii for her February Geisha School Intensive and the 6-day How to Talk to Men training. Mia is so excited that she is checking the (warmer) temperatures in Honolulu every day. Her new I-Phone is set to keep her posted of weather conditions in all her favorite places.

And speaking of I-Phones—have you met Siri yet? She is the best assistant you could ever have, and she lives in the newest Apple device. When one of our male clients asked her for a date, she replied that she was surprised that he would ask such a thing of an inanimate object. She also types for you and checks your calendar.

Duke – Hawaii's Greatest Surfer

Sage University in Hawaii

Xochitl Hernandez has become our right arm in Hawaii. She is getting around the island and handling a variety of tasks for Sage University. We have also renewed contact with several of our Pacific Rim graduates. It's a great feeling to know that we have such good friends all over the world. Honolulu is a gorgeous big city on a beautiful beach. There you have access to great shopping, friendly people, and amazing service.

So now you can choose between Ibiza and Hawaii for your next training. Flying time to Hawaii from Los Angeles is only 5 hours. You should book early for best rates. We are looking forward to seeing you and serving you in paradise.

WHAT'S NEW

Have you noticed all the glitter fashion in the shop windows? Many of the dresses this season are covered with bright, shiny spangles. Radiant fashion is the most visible sign that the Year of the Dragon is almost here. This is your year to write that book, record that song, and hire a PR company to get your name and face in lights. After the sedate Rabbit year you can expect to see a new wave of boldness in the air. So what are you doing that is interesting and original? Please send us your 2012 plans so that we can let everyone in the Sage University Network celebrate your celebrity with you.

Greeting from Mia Sage

You can now pre-order your copy of Das Neue Unternehmertum for 24,95€. We have completed the writing, so the book is in the hands of the printing professionals. If you would like one of the first copies please E-Mail me to place your order. Eva Kuby has agreed to assist us with distribution for the EU.

This is an excellent book that will greatly improve your business skills. It will also be the official textbook for the business incubators. The first 10 chapters cover Business Incubator Level I and the second 10 chapters cover Business Incubator Level II. You can be sure that when you have led your class through this information that they will be starting up their businesses with a big advantage.

I have been astonished at the sheer number of hours it takes to write a book. We have written, rewritten and edited many times to make sure that we have produced the finest possible manual for people that want to earn their living as free agent entrepreneurs. You will be amazed at how much better you earn after reading this operating manual for small business.

What do Angelina Jolie, Heidi Klum, Kate Moss, and Gisele Bundchen all have in common?

Every one of them wish they were as beautiful and sexy as Martina Wehrich. Fortunately for us, Martina is participating in a modeling contest and needs our votes to win. You can cast your vote by going to www.facebook.com/womaninthecity.hamburg, click on "Model Contest", chose "Martina" and click the "like" button.

This is your chance to tell the world that Martina is the one and only most gorgeous, stunning, creature on God's Green Earth. So please go on Facebook right now and "like" her photos.

Courage

We just completed a profound Journey to the Self Seminar. Participants learned how to use the map of consciousness, and to navigate their lives to a lighter, higher plane by following the sensations of lightness in their bodies. Each one saw and felt the magic of shifting from a particle identity into a visceral wave of pleasure.

It is easier than you think to live a life free from pressure and worry. The hard part is to trust your instincts when they tell you to let go of effort and struggle. The real life is sweet and light.

Sure, it takes some courage to follow the road less traveled. But the challenge is half the fun.

The paintings you see to the right is from Angela Buntrock. Now they are hanging in the home of Mia Sage. And we are looking forward to more art from Angela to sell in The Sage Curiosity Shop. We are also interested in offering sculptures, books, beauty products and other creations that you would like to offer to our students, clients, and customers.

Presently we are offering great books by Regina Swoboda, Linda Wooding, Jeff Smith, Carly Smith, Vanessa Del Rei, and Martin Sage. We also provide audio and video programs on all topics related to better living.

The book store is also collecting new and used books in German, Spanish, and English. Don't toss those business and relationships books. Recycle instead by sending them over here or bringing them along with you on your next adventure to Ibiza.

The Holiday trance is over. Everywhere you see people digging out of piles of wrapping paper and assessing the damage from all that eating and drinking. If 2012 is your year to get the body you want, we are offering a 28-day Lighten Up training in April.

Imagine getting slimmer through a combination of gourmet dining, dancing, and playing together in nature. We have the most effective diet and the most exciting team anywhere on the planet for people that want to slim down, tone up, and fit into that dream wardrobe.

Before you can lighten up your body, you have to light up your heart and mind. Personal attention, breakthrough interviews, and loads of laughter are the qualities that set this seminar apart. We all know that diets don't work. Here you will learn to pleasurecise and dine your way to the body you want to live in.

High Performance Leadership

(February 01-10)

In you want to lead people you have to understand them. There are plenty of seminars that teach about leadership, but only the High Performance Leadership 10-Day puts you directly into the game of leading people. You learn leadership by leading. That is a truism because it is true. So we give you the opportunity to lead real people in a real project to get real results.

When you take action you quickly realize your own errors. To learn wind surfing you have to fall down a lot. The same is true for leadership. Here is where you make your mistakes, collect your feedback, and adjust your game. You will leave this course with tested skills that inspire performance and get things done. Spend a few days with us on Ibiza to master the communication patterns that build great teams.

Nothing changes until you do. We can transform you into the leader you need to be. Feel free to E-mail us for more information, to set up a free consultation, or to enroll.

Geisha School Intensive

(February 15-19)

Great entertainers achieve their status because they are deeply committed to their craft. They care a lot about having a good impact on their audience. If you are in the business of training or entertaining men, the advanced Geisha School prepares you—body and soul—for the challenge of earning the respect and admiration of powerful men. To specialize in serving men you must develop a radically higher degree of focus and discipline. Every flaw in your character and presentation will evoke a powerful reaction. You want to be certain that your vibe strikes men in the right way. To win them you must gentle them. Gentlemen naturally go into service to women.

Any woman can manipulate and seduce men. But only the finest coaches and trainers can inspire and enchant them. Only attend this course if you are ready for the honest, tough feedback you need to change. You might not like what you see. But you will leave the course with an entirely new orientation toward men.

How to Talk to Men—6-Day

Instructor's Course

(February 20-25)

To earn your instructor certification for the How to Talk to Men weekends you must complete 30 days of training, including this 6-day course. So we put the class in Hawaii this year, where you will gather with other curious women to rehearse the inner theater method that sets this seminar apart from anything in the field of professional training.

Our unique approach to role-play in relationships makes this course easy to train. And the inner theater method guarantees that you will produce astonishing breakthroughs every time you conduct the course. Every coach that has added this product to her repertoire has been surprised at how much her practice grew.

Other relationship courses offer good advice and information. Only How to Talk to Men provides rehearsal in the communication skills that transform relationships. Your training will change the lives of many women. So come to Honolulu this winter so that we can show you how.
