

If you want to win more clients for this year you will need to improve your group selling skills. Home parties and business presentations are the keys to success.

The day after Easter we begin The Art of Selling 6-day. This is your chance to master the steps in the group selling process via SKYPE. You will create precise scripts--how to open a sales session, how to weave in stories, and how to assist your guests in signing up.

Group selling is the most direct method you can use to lift your business to a new level. This course offers step-by-step procedures and plenty of rehearsal.

The seminar hours are 5pm – 10pm and the tuition 300€. You can keep your appointments by day and Skype in for the evening. Let us know if you want to join so that we can connect you to the other students in your city.

We have been predicting that some of you would receive a lot of media coverage this year. Now that prediction is coming true through a spate of newspaper and magazine articles, along with a few TV interviews.

Before you see your name in print or see your face on television talk shows, you would be wise to prepare. That means to have a website, a book, or a DVD that you can offer to the people that contact you.

After our first media attention we received over 400 phone calls—people inquiring if we could meet with them. Many wanted something they could watch or read. We picked up dozens of new clients due to the fact that we were prepared. Our reception team had a script, and we had action steps ready to recommend to the callers.

P.T. Barnum said, “I don’t care what they say about me, just so they spell the name right.” He knew that all news is good news. The more times people hear your name, the more inclined they will be to contact you.

One article about you is worth thousands of dollars in advertising. So when fame comes knocking on your door, be sure to greet it with a smile.

Hawaii Waits for You

The next Geisha School and How to Talk to Men 6-day on Honolulu won’t be until November. But you might want to make your plans and book your flight now. Early registration and good planning will save you money and increase the fun factor.

Life is too short to neglect all the wonderful adventures available here on our little blue planet. When you make your commitment you set your intention. That is how you turn on the magic of living your dreams.

The Art of Seeing--Ibiza

You can improve your eyesight, and you can open your 3rd eye to see the world from your perspective as higher intelligence. This course offers eye exercises that release the mind. As your unfiltered view of the world emerges, you will feel the calm excitement of someone that is seeing a new place for the first time.

Here you will shift from your conceptual 2-dimensional vantage point into 3-dimensional perception that adds depth to your sense of vision.

Colors will appear brighter. Objects will appear clearer. You will see people with the eyes of affection. If you enjoy energy work, this seminar will transform your eyes into instruments of healing love.

The Art of Selling — 6-Day (April 09-14)

Public presentations put the magic in selling. When you can speak to an audience and win enrollment every time, your business grows exponentially. This exciting event provides laser accurate scripts and precision presentations you can use to increase your income. Together we will rehearse and analyze various approaches to group selling so that you can walk in to any meeting confident of your ability to sign people up. If your practice could be stronger, this is probably the missing link in your arsenal. Don't let this opportunity go by and Skype in over the Easter holidays. Call to enroll today.

Clinical Hypnotherapy (May 03-06)

The deepest, sweetest communication you can make doesn't come from anything you could ever think or say or do. Great connection with your clients is a quantum event in which two people or more join together in an unexpected transformation that lifts everyone to a new level of understanding and harmony. Like great dancers, or like true lovers, you lose track of who is doing what to whom. Boundaries dissolve. Everyone is transformed simultaneously. You will learn to go beyond hypnotic techniques by conversing directly with the higher consciousness of another infinitely intelligent human being. If you are ready for the next level, then this is your event. Contact us today and make your reservations to join us in May in Ibiza.

The Man/Woman Game (May 07-12 — Skype available)

You can measure your relationship IQ by the quality of intimacy you are enjoying in your life right now. When all is said and done, you either turn people off or you turn them on. Your conversations either bring you closer to other people or push you apart from them. We can show you how to connect with the people you desire. In this seminar men and women join together for deep, respectful exploration of the language of love. It doesn't matter in the least how you look or how you feel about yourself. When your heart does the talking your love has the power to transform acquaintances into friends and friends into lovers. Here you will learn how simplicity and clarity in communication make people glow with satisfaction and fulfillment.

Trainer Training (June 1-10)

Only a few people have the ability to really move an audience. Make sure that you are one of them.

Our annual Trainer Training is a 4-year intensive program designed to make sure that when you speak, you inspire. You spend 10 days per year in front of your professional associates receiving accurate feedback on every word, sound, movement, and breath. We offer clear, supportive help with your content, style and impact. Together we study your films and refine your presentation until you achieve the excellence you desire. This year we will include special practice in dealing with difficult people. You will learn to win over your detractors and to always remain calm and cool under fire. A great trainer trains herself with the same intensity as an Olympic athlete. Join us on Ibiza for 10 incredible days that will lift you to the top of your field.
