

Wedding Bells on Hawaii

Congratulations go out to Stefan and Xochi Wild, newly married on the beach at Waikiki. There is no sweeter thing in life than when two good people find each other. Our only question is, “Who will be the next lucky couple?”

This is the second wedding in as many years for the Geisha School Alumni. Learning to inspire men makes dreams come true.

And speaking of partnership, Mia Sage’s book is now printed and available for your enjoyment. She shows women how to get what they need by inspiring men. Mia doesn’t just write about the male-female conversation—she is the master of acceptance and appreciation. Be sure to order now to have her delicious book in time for Christmas gifts for women you love.

Return on Investment

Jobs are disappearing. The stock market is in disarray. Pensions are under siege. Is civilization in peril? Or are we just entering the next age of prosperity?

A hundred years ago the makers of saddles and buggy whips were in crisis. Everyone didn’t own a car in 1912. But only a decade later scarcely anyone rode a horse and buggy. The days of shoveling horse manure were behind us.

Change is moving a lot faster today. Jobs are swiftly becoming relics, as machines pick up the heavy lifting. So what does all the accelerating pace of change mean for you? Where should you invest your money? More importantly, what is the best use of your time?

You are your best investment. A bank might pay you 3 % interest on your money. But the best use of your time and money is in learning. Knowledge helps. Skills are more important. Today you must be able to plan, create, sell, recruit market, and lead people to prosper. Sage University on Ibiza is your best bet for success.

The new economy is not only stranger than you think. It is stranger than you can think. The harder you work, the more you fall behind. The more you play, the more you earn. In times like these, your pleasure is your only treasure. The more you enjoy life, the more people want to participate with you.

Two things affect the quality of your life—love and money. When you get those two things in balance, your life unfolds like a beautiful dream.

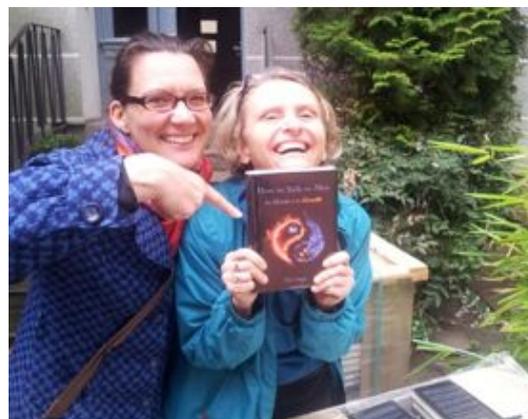

You can learn to move plenty of money by living your love. But no one can “teach” you that skill. You learn the money game by playing with other successful players. Our 2013 calendar offers a great year of play on Ibiza.

Greetings from Mia Sage

Life is strange. How is it that the hardest thing I ever did in my life was also the most fulfilling? Looking at the new hardcover copies of How to Talk to Men takes me back over many months of incredibly difficult challenges. Each page was an insurmountable obstacle—trying to put my experiences with men into words.

Women need this book. Every copy is a full-on workshop experience. Every one will transform a relationship. Every page will make somebody's life better. I am truly grateful to Dana, Carly, Andrea, Olenka, Xochi, Maria, Robert, Andreas and all the other folks who devoted time and energy to editing and refining the text. Now let's share it. Please join our global sales team so we can put our first Sage University book on the best seller's list.

They say that easy writing makes hard reading. This book should be a breeze to read after all the sweat and tears we poured into it. Now I am ready to launch the marketing and to set up the new web site. I need your help.

All of our most successful students are the ones that learned how to meet new people and to make service calls. You can learn how to perform those essential tasks by joining our How to Talk to Men service team.

You get 90 minutes of superlative sales training each week, along with a practice session that you share with other aspiring business people. To be the best you have to learn from the best. Call for details.

People Reading

(Dec 27-31)

Reading other people accurately comes down to relinquishing your projections. This exciting event helps you sort out the actual world from the world of your cultural values and opinions.

When you see a fault in another you are actually seeing a glitch in your perceptions. To read accurately you have to feel vivid excitement and aliveness in your own body and mind.

Our parents and teachers handed down terrible prejudices that blind us to the miraculous joy of playing with other people. This course shows the way to freedom.

Self-Actualization

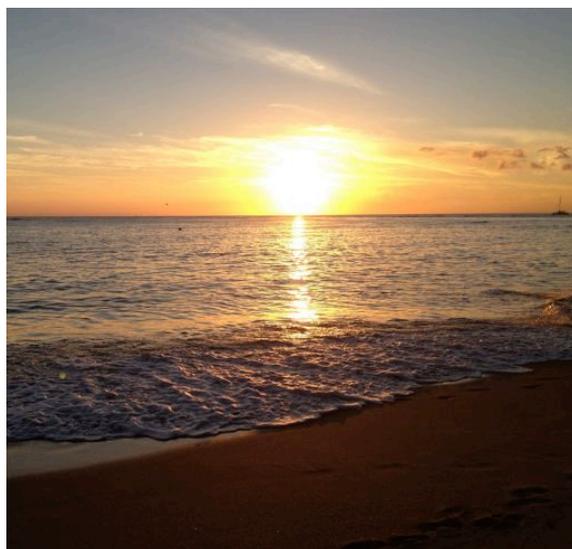

(Jan 1-7)

Real life is a rush of love that fills your heart with joy. No one has to tell you when you are yourself. You know it by the good vibrations you feel. Everything else is enculturation.

Most people live dull lives. They want to share their misery with you. When you have a peak experience, those people gather to distort and denigrate your vitality.

It takes a lot of courage to find your own way. That is why so few people live lives of exciting adventure. If you are ready for that, this workshop shows you how to discover your intrinsic values—the ones that come from within you.

To live life fully you must embrace the life you want to live. Are you ready to go through the looking glass? We can provide the perfect reflection of your hidden talents and your inner beauty.

HTTTM Instructor Course

(Feb 1-10)

Why not get rich and famous by training relationship courses? You can earn a terrific living and live an exciting life by travelling the world and fostering better communication between men and women. People are ready for a new chapter in the book of love. You can help.

The average woman turns out pretty much like her mother, unless she undergoes a powerful life-changing event that breaks the chain of hostility that has passed from generation to generation. The most certain path to liberation is to train other women in the art of loving acceptance.

Our unique inner theater method provides the skills you need to deliver the finest trainings available. Join us for 10 days of excitement and excellence in training.

Your Commitment Saves You Money

The swiftest, surest path to prosperity is through owning your own business. More than 80% percent of millionaires earned their security by operating their own small business. You can live your adventure as a service to others.

The jobs of the future will pay less. Machines will do most of the tasks that people perform today. You have a choice—to coast along on a low income, or to take the challenge of creating your own business. If you enjoy the challenge of achieving success, we can show you the attitudes and skills you will need to live your life as an outstanding adventure. You can't make a better investment than that.

You need great training to inspire you and improve your career. We want to keep your tuition as low as possible. That is why we are offering special tuition packages for 2013 for those who commit to 30 days of training. You can purchase 30 days of the Bachelor's level courses (the 6-day courses) for 3000€. This includes classes like Coaching Mastery, Entrepreneur School, Sales and Marketing, On Writing Well, Getting to Yes, Internet Marketing, Performing Arts, Media and Film School, etc.

Or you can attend 30 days of the Master's level courses (the advanced 10-day courses) for 4000€. This includes the high intensity Trainer Training, Millionaire Training, Leadership Training and How to Talk to Men Instructor's Course.

Both options save you 2000€ off the regular tuition fees. To take advantage of these outstanding prices you must sign up before Christmas and pay by the 31st of December.

Pleasure University

What ever you love to do, someone is making a living by doing that very thing. There is only one university existing for free agent entrepreneurs, and we are it. You are the students, the professors, and the network of partners who learn together and earn together by conducting small pilot projects. Together we learn by doing.

If you haven't discovered your true calling yet, we can hook you up with graduates who will partner with you to develop their projects. First you might volunteer your services. As you gain the skills and experience to make a real contribution, you can earn a percentage of their profits. They can't do it alone. Neither can you. So our system enables you to earn as you learn by doing projects together with other exciting people.

Neighboring farmers used to help each other regularly. There was no pleasure like a barn-raisin'. We built each other's homes and chicken coops, and then helped each other with the harvest. Every event was a great celebration of families pulling together for the good of everyone. Sage University draws on this cooperative approach. But now we build web sites, dance studios, business training sessions, and coaching systems, along with hundreds of other creative adventures. There are over 50,000 people in our extended system. Around 2000 of the most cooperative folks work together closely to make films, conduct seminars, write books, and deliver pleasure-based services worldwide. Instead of boring work, we play hard and share the rewards.

Business rewards the most generous players. Optimism and friendliness are essential business skills. Feeling bad only brings other people down. So lighten up, and let's play. Our approach strongly encourages win-win business practices that make you feel confident.

Do you need help to launch a project? Are you seeking partners for an exotic journey in a tropical paradise? Would you enjoy assisting someone else as you discover your own passion? Let us know what you need, and we will help you find it. All you have to do is show up with your generosity and enthusiasm. Whether you want to earn prosperity or get seriously rich, we can help you--as long as you are willing to help others. Discover the magic of loving and giving at the only business school that is in tune with the new service economy and the free agent phenomenon.
